Perry Blames Mayor for Unfair Paving

Ask Traffic Change for Arterial Route

Merchants Very Much Concerned

Former Alderman, Mayor Ask Action

A bid for immediate action toward solution of an arterial route problem in the city was made by former Ninth Ward Republican Alderman Paul J. Schatzzel at last night's Comon Council meeting.

Lack of through travel from St. James Street northward across Broadway, as recently discussed by Democratic Mayor Edwin F. Radel and merchants of the area involved, was emphasized by Schatzel.

Mayor Radel, meanwhile, it was revealed today has sent to Kurt G. Rauer at Poughkeepsie, a district state engineer, a map proposing a change in the traffic pattern at the city end of the arterial spur that would be more satisfactory to the businessmen.

Referred to Aldermen, State

Schatzel's bid for action was referred to the council's traffic committee and state engineers.

Mayor Radel sent the new proposal to Rauer Tuesday after he had met Monday with the merchants to discuss problems pertinent to the eastern end of the arterial route.

The map, which came to the mayor from an un-named source, provides for an easier access to stores in the Broadway-St. James Street side of the traffic interchange pattern. An "island" in the pattern would be cut through to allow for easier access to stores involved.

Serious, Says Schatzel

Schatzel, said from what he had read, he considered the problem at St. James Street a serious one. He felt that while the arterial route system was designed to facilitate travel to and from the city, it appeared to be creating new problems in the city.

Schatzel, a resident of Andrew Street, when he was an alderman during the administration of Oscar V. Newkirk, now lives at 36 Wall Street, and has an office at 70 St. James Street.

He felt that the traffic pattern plan, if final, is detrimental in that it directs traffic down Broadway from St. James Street with no means of heading directly uptown or across Broadway into Albany Avenue.

No Change Resulted

Majority Leader James K. Ryan (D) 10th Ward, recalled that after a public hearing two years ago on the arterial route plan, no change in the condition mentioned appeared to result. Work on the project was delayed, he noted, because the route was made part of an interstate or federal system. This means that the federal govern-

Jury Is Expected To Hear Ryan Today

The regular March grand jury was scheduled to reconvene early this afternoon at which time the case of Morgan D. Ryan, former official of the defunct Ulster Bituminous Company, was expected to be resubmitted.

Twenty-two members of the grand jury were present in court this morning at which time Supreme Court Justice William F. Deckelman announced the adjournment until 1:30 p. m.

Aim At Finishing

Senator Bernard Tompkins, special prosecutor for the State Attorney General, told the court that if the grand jury "is willing to sit late we would like to complete our presentation of this case today." Members of the grand jury indicated their availability for a long session.

Tompkins said it would "probably" not be necessary to call the jury back tomorrow.

One member of the jury told Judge Deckelman that it was possible he might lose his job if he had to sit with the jury again Thursday. Judge Deckelman said it would not be necessary for him to report tomorrow, even if the grand jury should convene.

Could Return Indictment

The allegation that Ryan conspired to pay bribes to public officials is to be considered today. If the information is deemed sufficient an indictment could be returned.

Last March 10, the special grand jury investigating kickbacks, returned an indictment charging Ryan with conspiracy to bribe public officials. The Appellate Division of Supreme Court later dismissed the indictment on grounds Ryan had appeared before the grand jury and testified and therefore had gained immunity.

Not Absolved

That decision was taken to the Court of Appeals by the prosecution, the State's highest court in part sustaining the lower court. Dismissal of the indictment against Ryan by the Court of Appeals in no way involved the merits of the case or absolved him of guilt in the matter. This left the matter open for resubmission to the grand jury.

Since the original indictment had been returned by the special grand jury before which Ryan had appeared and testified, an application was made by Tomp-

Must Talk Peace With Eisenhower, Says Khrushchev

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Nikita S. Khrushchev, beaming with good will over his invitation to America, declared today that a lasting peace could flow from friendly U.S.-Soviet relations.

When he and President Eisenhower get together, first in Washington and then in Moscow, Khrushchev said, "We must talk peace without any sabre rattling."

In Washington, congressional callers at the White House described Eisenhower as enthusiastic, too, about the trip he will make to Moscow.

Doubt in Geneva

But, in Geneva, once more there was the customary note of doubt that Russia wants amicable accords. The Western powers there blamed Russia for their failure to reach agreement on what to do about Berlin.

The East's foreign ministers said the Soviets actually are trying to

Machines Picking Half of New York State Bean Crop

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — Machines instead of migrant workers are picking half of the string-bean crop in New York State, the State Agriculture Department estimates.

August is bean-picking month in the state.

The department said Tuesday a good picker could pick 300 pounds of beans in an eight-hour day, whereas a mechanical harvester operated by two men could gather about 20,000 pounds in the same time.

But hand labor, traditionally supplied by thousands of migrants that pour into the state each year, is not likely to be completely supplanted, the department said. The reasons:

Mechanical pickers frequently bruise and otherwise spoil the appearance of the beans. Growers who sell to the fresh market rather than for canned or frozen goods prefer hand-picking.

Many growers with a variety of crops will continue to use hand labor in the bean fields to keep the workers available for use in other crops.

The bean pods do not mature at the same time and human pickers can distinguish between ripe pods and unripe ones, while mechanical pickers—so far—cannot.

Sale Will Offer Large Stocks to Uptown Shoppers

Large stocks of merchandise will be offered to the public at unusual values in the annual August Sale Days in the uptown shopping district Thursday, Friday and Saturday, a spokesman for the Uptown Businessmen's Association said today.

Approximately 50 stores in the uptown area are participating.

The sales will be featured by clearance of spring and summer merchandise and the introduction of fall promotional values.

S. W. Flemming, manager of Montgomery Ward's and president of the association, said the public would find many substantial bargains in participating stores.

100,000 Reported Idle Now Because Of Steel Strike

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP)—The effects of the three-week-old steel strike continued to spread today like a contagious illness, claiming thousands more innocent victims in industries allied to steel.

An unofficial tally of layoffs in industries depending on steel indicates that nearly 100,000 workers are idle.

They are furloughed men who have no current arguments with their companies and whose companies have no grievances with them. They became involved in the dispute because their companies depend on steel to operate at full scale.

Job Prospects Remote

Their prospects for regular work are remote until the 500,000-man nationwide steel walkout is settled.

The victims include mostly coal and iron miners, railroad workers, truckers, and other transportation men who handle steel. To

Failure Is Blamed on Russians

No Agreement Is Reached on Berlin

GENEVA (AP) — The Western powers blamed the Soviet Union in the closing session of the Big Four conference today for their failure to reach agreement here on a Berlin settlement. They accused the Soviets of seeking to annex West Berlin to the Communist system.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter said that as far as he had been able to determine in almost 10 weeks of negotiation, the Soviet Union is "not really interested in improving the situation in Berlin."

Unrewarding to Soviet

"It is interested in getting the Western powers out of Berlin," he said in his final speech of the conference. "Apparently continued competitive coexistence of freedom and communism in Berlin is unrewarding to the Soviet Union."

"The Soviet proposals to date have seemed to us to be designed gradually to annex these people to the Communist system against their will. This cannot be permitted," he said.

Word by Word Debate

The ministers had ready for today's closing session a 200-word communique registering their failure to agree on the future of Berlin. The phrasing of the communique was debated word by word Tuesday night in a three - hour conference that lasted 30 minutes beyond midnight.

The ministers agreed to recess the conference, not end it. But the date for resuming negotiations was left open. Far more important now are the discussions Eisenhower and Khrushchev will hold next month in Washington and later in Moscow.

The exchange of visits between

Esopus to Petition Governor on Bridge

A petition citing the Rondout Creek Bridge on Route 9W as a "traffic bottleneck and hazard" will be circulated for signatures by the Esopus Town Board with the assistance of the Port Ewen Businessmen's Association.

The request for elimination of existing "hazardous conditions" will be directed to Governor Rockefeller and the New York State Department of Public Works.

The southerly approach to bridge is listed as a serious hazard also. Falling rock, inadequate drainage and obscured approach are given as dangerous existing conditions.

The petition reads as follows:

1. That the Rondout Creek Bridge on Route 9W connecting the City of Kingston with the Town of Esopus, due to increased traffic now constitutes a serious traffic bottleneck and hazard.

2. That the rock on the southerly approach to said bridge likewise constitutes a serious hazard to both vehicular and pedestrian traffic due to rock falling on the traveled portion of Route 9W at said point.

3. That the steep incline and

31½ Million Slash Rockefeller's Aim

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — Gov. Rockefeller is considering cutting state-purposes spending by 31½ million dollars in an effort to attain "pay-as-you-go" financing next year.

The state-purposes section of the budget covers maintenance items, such as employes' salaries and equipment purchases. In the current fiscal year, state-purposes spending is estimated at $630,800,000 dollars.

Rockefeller is contemplating a five per cent cut.

To Work on Tax Relief

The governor also plans to submit to the Legislature next year a tax-relief proposal for residents of Connecticut and New Jersey who work in New York State and who are required to pay New York income taxes.

Rockefeller's aides made public Tuesday a letter from the governor to all department and agency heads, instructing them to show how they would trim five per cent from their spending budgets.

He told them:

Must Take Action

"Every feasible program—elimination or curtailment consistent with the maintenance of essential services to the people through your department or agency must be made. . ."

The entire state budget for fiscal 1959-60 is about two billion dollars. The governor used 100 million dollars in bonds and 47 million from the construction reserve fund to balance the budget. Thus, he considers he fell 147 million dollars short of a pay-as-you-go status; that is, income from revenue failed to cover outgo.

In his letter, Rockefeller pointed out that it soon would be time for agency heads to draw up their 1960-61 budget requests.

Will Tighten Budget

With New Yorkers paying higher taxes this year, Rockefeller said, he is determined that the next budget should be "the tightest possible."

"I am determined also," he wrote, "that each tax dollar produce a dollar's worth of service and that we make every effort to achieve this year our goal of pay-as-you-go."

By "this year" he meant this year's planning of the new budget.

Gives Instructions

The governor gave these instructions:

1. No state-purposes appropriation request for any department or agency may exceed the total

About 45 Speeders Caught by Radar On Thruway Here

Thruway police of the Kingston station arrested some 40 or 45 motorists for speeding during the 24-hour period ending at 8 a. m. today.

The arrests were the result of a radar set-up near the station.

A spokesman for the local barracks indicated that the number was somewhat low for such a period due to the rain which began falling early last night, a factor which tends to slow down traffic.

Fourteen of the cases were brought into the court of Justice of the Peace Robert E. Ferrigan of the town of Kingston.

Judge Ferrigan reported this morning that most of the cases came in during the evening.

Fines in the 14 cases, which varied somewhat due to rate of speed, previous convictions, etc., amounted to $185.

Ferrigan said most of the speeders were clocked at from 70 to 80 m.p.h.

Troopers reported that the remainder of the cases were taken to the court of Justice of the Peace Arthur Reilly of the town of Ulster.

Efforts to reach Judge Reilly this morning were unavailing but it is estimated that he handled some 25 or 30 cases during the 24-hour period ending at 8 a. m. today.

Aldermen Appointed To Check

Radel Proposes Oil for Heating

A blast by Alderman Samuel J. Perry, (R) Fifth Ward, against Mayor Edwin F. Radel for permitting what Perry claims is an unfair practice in street paving led to appointment of one of two special Common Council committees last night.

The meeting recessed subject to call of Alderman-at-Large Harold L. Kaye mainly to consider Mayor Radel's proposed use of oil fuel, instead of coal, at the city's central heating plants.

Another committee named, as suggested by the mayor, will study proposed naming of a parking authority to better "parking accommodations" throughout the city.

Cites Condition

Perry claimed that one section of Pearl Street gained "capital improvement" repair without cost to taxpayers while an upper area in the neighborhood got new pavement at a cost of 75 per cent to home owners.

Hardest hit by Perry was the reported Radel charge that he, Perry, is a publicity seeker. Perry held that he, as a councilman, has been critical of both Democratic and Republican administrations.

"Nobody," he said, "tells me how to vote."

Refers to Garbage Deal

Also, he wanted to know, why a low bid for garbage collection was by-passed, and he was told by Majority Leader James K. Ryan (D) 10th Ward, that full specifications were not met at deadline, and the city needed assurance of an efficiently continued collection schedule.

Council President Kaye named Aldermen Ryan, Perry and Donald M. Hastings (D) Third Ward, as the committee to investigate Perry's charges pertinent to street repair. To study betterment of parking conditions he named Ryan, Minority Leader William A. Davis (R) 11th Ward, and Frank C. Sass (D) Seventh Ward.

Criticizes Delay in Repair

Perry was also critical of delayed repair of a collapsed section of wall on the High Road (East Union Street). People of the area have been waiting a year and a half for action, he claimed, and he hoped they would get it. Since the wall gave way, he held, there has been a steady round of placing and picking up lanterns used for night safety.

The committee was named to study conditions mentioned by Perry pertinent to street paving in the Pearl Street area, after Alderman Ryan also proposed that a check should be made to clarify points mentioned by Perry.

Not Talking for Publicity

In criticizing the mayor, Perry said he had been accused by the mayor some weeks ago as "looking for nothing but publicity" and referring to the mayor's numerous "pictures in the paper."

Agreement Near About Thruway Service Jobs

The Thruway Authority and the 18 members of the New York Thruway Garage Contractors' Association, including two in Ulster County, are near accord in their contract negotiations after a day-long meeting in Albany, according to David Natelson, Syracuse, attorney who represented the association.

Ulster County members of the association are, William Quirke, Parsons of Kingston, Inc., 300 Broadway, and N. R. Jansen, Jansen's Super Service, 160 Main Street, New Paltz.

Natelson said the new contract will reflect the Authority's desire to continue experimentation with varying types of emergency service.

The first phase of the Authority's new plan is now under way and places the responsibility for patroling, finding disabled vehicles, and for providing gas, water and tire changing tools on Authority personnel.

The second phase, to begin in the fall, will place the responsibility for full roadside emergency repairs on gas stations located on the Thruway. Until then the garage contractors will provide this service.

When the first two phases are accomplished, then the Garage Contractors will have full responsibility for all wrecking, winching, rigging, towing, pushing and off-Thruway repairs.

Natelson pointed out that the willingness of the Garage Contractors to assist the Authority

President to Discuss Labor Bill Thursday

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower will make a nationwide broadcast Thursday night to urge the enactment by Congress of effective labor control legislation.

Eisenhower will speak from his office at 7:30 p.m. (EDT) over the major radio and TV networks.

Press secretary James C. Hagerty said the White House had asked for 15 minutes on the networks "to permit the President to talk to the nation on the need of the Congress to enact this year effective labor reform legislation."

Eisenhower presumably will ask for legislation much like that of the Landrum-Griffin bill, which has been offered in the House as a substitute for the bill drafted by the House Labor Committee.

At a news conference last week, the President spoke favorably of the measure sponsored by Reps. Phil M. Landrum (D-Ga) and Robert P. Griffin (R-Mich).

Union leaders call this bill much tougher than the one reported by the House committee. The AFL-CIO is strongly opposed to it.

Eisenhower is known to want, among other things, legislation outlawing blackmail picketing and tightening up laws on secondary boycotts.

He has been represented as regarding both the House committee bill as well as the bill already passed by the Senate as inadequate to correct abuses disclosed by the rackets committee headed by Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark).

Glancing Over TV Bill of Fare

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—How do you like Sam Levenson?

Personally, I think his good-humored morning show on CBS-TV is the brightest spot on network morning television. It's witty and it's wise.

There in the morning, tucked among the shrill give-aways and depressed soap operas and old reruns, sits Sam holding interesting conversations with interesting people.

But, sad to relate, they've prepared the obituary notice for Sam's morning show. They've dug the grave and will drop the show in it Sept. 25. They can't, of course, bury Sam Levenson — only this particular show.

In its place, unless plans are changed, will go a re-re-rerun of "December Bride."

Well, I'm tired of being a mourner at the funerals of good television programs. I know of only one thing to do. Let's give Sam a shower instead of a funeral. If sponsors and networks pay as much attention to viewer mail as they claim to, the show might continue to live.

If you enjoy Sam's program and want it to remain on the air, write him at CBS-TV, 485 Madison Ave., New York 22, and tell him so. I hereby volunteer to help him carry the mail bags to the appropriate authorities.

On a happier note, good television programs don't always die permanently.

It now appears that the forthright, superb "See It Now" series will return to CBS-TV a year hence after Edward R. Murrow returns from his year's sabbatical leave. At least 10 hour-length, reporting in depth "See It Now" shows will be seen in prime evening viewing time during the 1960-61 season.

Busy Retirement

NEW YORK (AP)—Although he retired and came back to the United States in 1955 after 54 years missionary work in Japan, the Rev. Dr. William Axling still hasn't found time to take it easy. In a recent 30-day period, the Baptist clergyman filled 40 speaking engagements.

Have No Counter-Offensive Plans

Central Europe Protection Unit Is Combat Ready Under NATO Rule

By BEM PRICE

FONTAINEBLEAU, France, (AP)—On paper 21 1-3 divisions constitute the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's shield for the protection of central Europe.

These divisions supposedly are near full strength, well-equipped and combat ready—425,000 men. A reporter touring Allied commands, however, finds it difficult to believe the Allies could muster more than 250,000 troops, some indifferently equipped, against an attack.

Under NATO policy this land force would meet any Soviet aggression as close to the frontiers of the 750-mile long Iron Curtain as possible and hold them there until the rest of Europe could mobilize.

Three Main Routes

In discussing NATO policy a briefing officer at Supreme Headquarters, Allied Powers, Europe SHAPE, said, "we have no offensive plans at this headquarters." In response to a question, he added, "We do have counter-offensive plans."

The job of these 21 1-3 divisions is to guard the three main invasion routes into the heart of NATO from the east — the North European plain, the Mittelgebirge Gap in central Germany and the Danube Valley in the south.

The shield force consists on paper of five U.S. divisions, four from the United Kingdom, two from France, seven from Germany, two from Belgium and one from the Netherlands, plus one-third of a Canadian division.

But paper strength does not win battles. How many of these divisions actually are ready for modern combat?

Gen. Jean-Etienne Valluy, who has been a French soldier for 42 of his 60 years, is commander in chief of the Allied forces in central Europe with headquarters at Fontainebleau.

Divisions Ready

In an interview, Gen. Valluy said that if he had to undertake a land war in Europe tomorrow there would be three divisions he could not commit immediately — one each from France, Belgium and the Netherlands.

Could the British really muster four divisions? "The British could muster three," Valluy replied.

Thus by Valluy's reckoning the shield force for central Europe now is 17 combat divisions ready for action, but that is not the whole story.

The seven German divisions exist, but four are essentially training divisions. The other three are heavily armored, highly mobile units of 9,000 to 10,000 men each.

If the German training divisions are removed from the list of the combat-fit units, Valluy's land forces are reduced to 13 1-3 divisions, but again that is not the whole story.

Members on Foot

Gen. Valluy noted that the British and Belgian forces contain large numbers of foot soldiers. In these days of atomic battlefield weapons and mechanization, the walking soldier may be an anachronism.

Valluy was asked what he considered his major problem. "My main fear and worry is the feeling of moral disengagement some nations seem to have toward NATO."

In February 1957 Britain formally advised her allies that a strained economy was forcing her to reduce her NATO commitment in Germany from 80,000 troops to 50,000. France notified NATO of a similar intention.

All this boils down to a single hard fact: there seem to be precisely eight divisions now in the NATO shield which are full strength, well-equipped and highly trained for atomic warfare—five U.S. divisions and three German.

NATO Shield Faces

What does the NATO shield face?

Western military men say: there are 20 Soviet divisions in East Germany alone — 400,000 men. In addition, there are seven East German divisions, 95,000 men, 14 Polish divisions, 280,000 men and 14 Czechoslavakian divisions of 170,000 men.

In all, the Soviets have about 175 divisions, 160 of which are stationed west of the Ural Mountains. Soviet divisions range in size from 13,000 to 15,000 men. A standard U.S. division contains 14,500 men.

Intelligence reports indicate the Soviets maintain all their active divisions at somewhere between 65 and 75 per cent of wartime strength.

THE BIG GAMBLE

We're taking a chance. We know Nikita Khrushchev has been angling for a chance to sit down in two-way talks with the United States.

We're taking that chance—but after full consultation with our allies — by allowing Khrushchev to come here and President Eisenhower to visit Russia.

Our allies are no more anxious than we to see the two great powers of West and East sitting down to a limited "Summit" in Washington or Moscow. But they know that somehow, by some such dramatic gesture, Russian leader must be persuaded that their propaganda has played them false.

The United States isn't weak. Its people are not unhappy, on the brink of revolt due to unemployment, integration and other issues.

We're gambling that Khrushchev, shrewd peasant that he is, will go home impressed by a country happy with its rich distribution of consumers goods, united on foreign policy and without the slightest intention to knuckle under to Red domination anywhere from Berlin to Oshkosh.

The Nixon trips to Russia and Poland have rattled the rivets in the Iron Curtain. But the curtain always was most effective not in keeping outsiders out of Russia but to prevent Russians from getting a clear picture of the outside world.

Khrushchev now will have an opportunity to see for himself what his deputies, Anastas Mikoyan and Frol Koslov, have seen. Undoubtedly the visit will promote his stock in the Kremlin power contrast, which never ceases.

But if Khrushchev can be persuaded that he can be a bigger man in Russia by moves toward world peace instead of by moves toward war, which have been the previous pattern, then the gamble shall have paid off—for this and generations to come.

We should remember, however, that it IS a gamble.

Scientists have detected solar "death rays" which may make space travel impossible. Oh, well, we've always liked it here on Earth.

ACKNOWLEDGEABLE PRO

In the news again is a familiar reassuring name. It is that of Robert D. Murphy, trouble shooter for the U.S. Department of State for many years.

Throughout recent history, at times of extreme crisis, his name came to the fore. Just a year ago at the time of the landings in Lebanon, he sped by air from point to point in the Middle East, using his knowledge of the world and diplomacy to spread oil upon the waters.

Murphy has been nominated for a new top post in the State Department. He is an example of a career diplomat who has worked effectively and quietly for peace in the world. With the responsibilities of the world's welfare thrust upon it, the United States can well use Murphy's talents and those of a legion of professionals like him.

DUST UNTO DUST

Life was not exactly a bed of roses to begin with for the personnel charged with putting America's best foot forward at the U. S. cultural exhibit in Moscow.

The numerous minor but irritating obstacles from Red officialdom, and the goings-over in the Soviet press were bad enough.

But then came the dust.

Dust from a crumbling concrete floor which had not had time to set properly. Dust that covered guides, spectators and exhibits alke.

Amercans' and Russians' knowledge of each other is hazy enough without the added handicap of dust.

But an asphalt topping has now been laid over the floors. Let's hope that the ground is finally prepared for some good hard selling of America to the critical Russian citizen.

'These Days'

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

NIXON AT ARMAGEDDON

Three facts seem to stand out clearly in all the fol-de-rol of the Nixon tour in Russia. I use the phrase, fol-de-rol, not critically but factually, because the nature of a state visit is, what it always has been, a fussily arranged tour for political or economic purposes. Therefore, the student of the current situations must seek beyond the parade for results and accomplishments.

1. The main objection to a Summit Conference has been that Nikita Khrushchev uses every event not only for propaganda purposes but for his private type of buffoonery and in the end, nothing is accomplished. The first Geneva Conference on Germany (1955) was a total failure for this reason. Khrushchev clowned it into absurdity.

However, Khrushchev was then competing with Bulganin for leadership. He actually barged into the conference, the official delegate being Bulganin. Also, he had not yet broken the power of Malenkov, Molotov and Kaganovitch and had plenty of opposition in Moscow. He posed a role and got away with it, but he spoiled the chance for further conferences.

Also, it was the first time he had experienced such a gathering and he either had to face the great men in awe or project himself as a kid showing off before his elders. He did the latter and President Eisenhower quite naturally felt that he would try to avoid such an unpleasant and meaningless experience.

Khrushchev, however, resents the personal ostracism by his equals over the world and is pressing the point with all the propagandistic and diplomatic machinery at his control.

It is probably true of Khrushchev, as it was of Stalin, that Great Britain and France play a small role in his calculations. The United States looms large. Therefore, a state visit to the United States seems to be the proposal that grows out of the Nixon visit. If such a visit should eventuate, Khrushchev would have to behave properly or he will do great damage.

2. Nixon has handled himself in Soviet Russia with rare skill. He showed no fear of crowds; he exhibited unusual dexterity in impromptu debate; he turned the peace propaganda wheel into an American instrument; he possesses none of the stuffed-shirt qualities which foreigners expect from American officials. Enormous numbers of Russians had an opportunity to see him and the general report is that they liked him. Whereas the Russian propaganda machine was at work to trip him into anger or error, he avoided or rather evaded all their little tricks, including the bum cement they used on the American Fair buildings. It takes a special kind of personality to keep one's temper without losing one's dignity—Nixon apparently has it, or has trained himself to meet this type of situation.

The result of this is a different picture of an American than has appeared in the literature and cartoons in Russia. Here is no fat capitalist with a huge cigar in his mouth, green dollars falling out of his pockets, demanding war for his own profits. Here is a youngish-looking proletarian, the son of a grocer, second man in the country, asking for peace. It unquestionably will lessen the Russian people's fears of the United States.

3. Whereas both Mikoyan and Kozlov, while they were in the United States, saw everything they wanted to see, the Russians tried to limit Nixon's visit. They did to a certain extent. But he fought them tooth and nail and the Russians discovered that they were not dealing with namby-pamby Westerners who fear war more than life itself. Both Vice President Nixon and Admiral Rickover told them where they got off when they tried to cover up or change the rules or play the usual babyish tricks which seem so important to Russians and make them not feared but distrusted throughout the world. They discovered that Americans are not easily pushed around. They can be generous but not suckers. Nixon exacted as much as he could out of the agreements concerning these visits. And it has all been beneficial to this country.

Fundamentally, the reasons for the visits of Mikoyan, Kozlov and Nixon are identical. The United States and Soviet Russia have, for a year, been close to war—on the brink, as John Foster Dulles put it. Neither side wants war. The objective is to use phychological steps to minimize the prospect of war. Such a program could be worked out without complication except that the Russians like tricks. They are, after all, a nation of chess players.

No Definite Cause Yet Discovered for Bell's Palsy

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

Evidently the disorder known as Bell's palsy is either more common than I imagined or a subject which victims and their friends find peculiarly puzzling, since questions continue to pour in on this subject. The latest comes from Mrs. W., whose questions on cause, treatment and nature I shall attempt to answer.

Bell's palsy is a nerve disorder. It received its name from a famous English physician who was the first to give a good description of it. It is really neuritis of the so-called facial nerve which supplies some of the skin and muscles of the face.

This nerve is one of 12 which come directly out of the brain instead of from the spinal cord. These 12 are called cranial nerves. They have numbers as well as names; the facial nerve is also called the seventh.

The most characteristic feature of Bell's palsy is a paralysis of the muscles of one side of the face which produces a drooping or sagging of the lip and an inability to close one eye. As a result, the two sides of the face do not look alike even when at rest; the difference becames more conspicuous when motions like wrinkling the forehead, smiling or laughing are attempted. Also, it may be difficult to close the mouth firmly and saliva or food may escape out of one corner of the lips.

Bell's palsy often starts suddenly and is associated with some pain. The pain may leave rather rapidly and then there may be no sensations except perhaps mild tingling. A change in the reaction to pressure or to the prick of a pin is common. The sense of taste over the front portions of the tongue is also likely to be affected.

This condition may be the result of injury, such as a cut or a gunshot wound. The difficulty may follow the extraction of a tooth although why this should happen is not well understood. Infections of various sorts, especially those in the upper part of the nose or throat, frequently precede the onset of this type of nerve paralysis. Diseases such as mumps, shingles, scarlet fever, or influenza are additional possibilities, as are many other conditions, both rare and common. In many cases, however, no definite cause can be discovered.

Treatment depends on the cause, if it can be discovered. In those varieties which follow an acute infection, time is perhaps all that is needed. In other cases some special operation or treatment is indicated. The application of heat around the ear area may be helpful. If the paralysis is slight and there is nothing to make it seem undesirable, electric treatments may help. Active movements of the face in front of a mirror are recommended from the beginning.

Bell's palsy usually clears up entirely in the long run, though it may last for months or occasionally even for years.

Don't Go Too Far Away

Washington News

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — U. S. State Department and the International Co-operation Administration, which runs the foreign aid program, have issued a rebuttal to charges made against them in "The Ugly American," best-selling novel by William J. Lederer and Eugene Burdick.

Theme of his work was that most Americans in the foreign aid business are bums. The one exception was "The Ugly American" hero. He wanted to do a job for the backward people of Southeast Asia, but he was thwarted at every turn by his sleek, but dopey, superiors who were always outsmarted by their Russian counterparts.

It made good reading. And it served a useful purpose in spotlighting the mistakes and dangers inherent in Uncle Sam's multi-million-dollar efforts to aid underdeveloped countries all over the world.

THE FOREIGN SERVICE and foreign aid boys in government took this on the chin as part of their job till last year. Then the House Foreign Affairs Committee compiled 15 of the most serious charges in "Ugly American" and asked the State Department, "True or false?"

The answers are now printed in a House committee report on "Criticisms of the Foreign Aid Program." It was released before voting on this year's programs began.

There isn't space here to give all the answers. But a few condensations will give the idea, in fairness to both the authors and the government people.

Most important, the State Department admits that the title character of "The Ugly American" was drawn from a real person. He was an ICA technician named Otto Hunderwadel. With his wife Helen, he served in Burma from 1949 until his death in 1951. They were widely loved.

THE AUTHORS STATE that the model for the offensive Joe Bing, described as chief of information in the mythical country of Setlaya, is not fiction.

ICA says it can't identify him, but that he may be a composite of the unfortunate personality traits of many people, wrapped into one bundle. ICA points out, however, that since 1953 it has had no information officers of its own overseas.

In chapter two of the novel is the story of a U. S. shipment of rice to the imaginary country of Sarkhan. This was turned into Communist propaganda by the clever Russians. They stenciled on each bag, in the native language, "This rice is a gift from Russia." . . . The authors admit in the factual epilogue that this never happened.

In CHAPTER 14 of the novel is the story of an ICA technician character named Tom Knox who was forced to resign because he wanted to import chickens into Cambodia.

ICA says the factual basis for this is that 5,000 chickens and 12,000 hatching eggs were sent to Cambodia in 1957. From this beginning, 30,000 chickens were raised in a little over a year. Improved flocks were started by 220 farmers, one of which has 2,000 laying hens. Total cost to the U. S. was $7,500. The program was a complete success, as it has been in 26 other countries over the last seven years. In Lebanon the large eggs are called "Point Four Eggs."

On page 283 of "The Ugly American" it says "We saw America spending vast sums where Russia spends far less and achieves far more." Comments ICA on this:

"The statement is without basis in fact." Ninety-five per cent of Soviet-Sino bloc aid has been spent in six countries. The Communists spent 1.3 billion dollars there while the U. S. spent one billion from 1955 to 1958.

In these six countries, Yugoslavia has defected, Egypt-Syria are disenchanted, Afghanistan is neutral, Indonesia and India are neutrals with recently strengthened western learnings.

President's Reason for Bid For Visits Called Unclear

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — A fascinating "poker game" has been going on for several weeks now, and the big question is: Who won—Khrushchev or Eisenhower? The reasons behind the invitation by the President to the Soviet Premier are by no means clear, and it is not yet possible to say which one was outmaneuvered.

But these facts are known — that the Soviet Premier wanted a "summit" conference and the United States didn't, though Britain was favorable and France was somewhat indifferent. The plan for a Foreign Ministers' conference to be held at Geneva was devised on the theory that, if any substantial progress were made, this would justify a "summit" conference.

But Nikita Khrushchev is a stubborn man. He didn't want a Foreign Ministers' conference. He sent his Foreign Minister to Geneva, but with instructions to make no agreements there. Gromyko complied 100 per cent. The idea was to force a "summit" meeting on the pretense that only the heads of government could negotiate agreements.

Another Approach

Then the Western allies recessed the Foreign Ministers' conference. President Eisenhower decided on another approach. He thought that maybe an "exploratory" consultation might be held between him and the Soviet Premier. If Mr. Khrushchev wanted to come to the United States on a visit—it had been said that this was his real reason for pressing for a "summit" conference — then an invitation to him alone to come to America might serve the broad purpose. At least it would feel out the situation for the United States, and then it could be determined whether any progress sufficient to warrant a "summit" conference had been made.

Corroboration of this analysis is to be derived in part from the President's press conference on Monday of this week, when he was asked:

"The impression has somehow been received, Mr. President, in considering a possible visit by Mr. Khrushchev to the United States, that before you would issue an invitation to him, there would have to be some evidence of 'give,' in the sense of 'give and take' on the part of Mr. Khrushchev, on Western principles. May we take it that there has been some such indication?

President's Reply

The President replied as follows:

"No, I can't—I don't think you can say that, Mr. Belair. This is what I have said — that holding of a "summit" meeting and negotiation, that that would be, in my mind, absolutely impractical and, as the State Department says, unproductive unless we could count on some positive results. But I would say these, so far as our discussions of mutual problems, are exploratory rather than any attempt at negotiation."

Mr. Eisenhower revealed that "some time back" he had suggested to the State Department that he believed, "in the effort to melt a little bit of the ice that seems to freeze our relationships with the Soviets, that possibly a visit such as I now have proposed would be useful, and we studied this thing and, in early July, I initiated the correspondence that finally brought about an agreement."

Tied to Gromyko Actions

Under the circumstances, it now is apparent just why Foreign Minister Gromyko wouldn't agree to anything in Geneva. As long as a consultation with the President of the United States was being planned, the Soviet government felt that nothing further need be done for the present. Conversely, it is possible that Mr. Eisenhower hoped his gesture might eventually have a beneficial effect. Apparently he still held to that view even in his special conference with the press this very week, when he said:

"The visit itself (between Khrushchev and the president) has no direct connection with any possible later 'summit' meeting. I, of course, would hope that the mere announcement would inspire the Foreign Ministers to a greater activity, and probably some greater effort at conciliation, so that there might be results before Wednesday, when they temporarily adjourn—at least that would justify the scheduling of such a later meeting, at what time I don't know. But in any event, even if they have to reassemble, I would hope they could do that, if they found it reasonable and proper.

A Personal Visit

"Now I merely want to make clear that this is a personal visit for the purposes that I have outlined, and are given in the statement, but with the hope that it will do something to promote understanding and possibly progress toward peace in the world."

The key phrases in that comment are those that say there is "no direct connection" with the later "summit" meeting and that "this is a personal visit." But the impression is inescapable that the President tried hard to assuage the Soviet Premier with a promise of an exchange of personal visits, hoping that something good in return would come out of the Foreign Ministers' conference at Geneva or later in New York anyway. There is some reason to believe that the Soviet Premier accepted the President's invitation rather suddenly, for The United Press International as late as Friday of last week reported as follows:

"The President has told some visitors that an invitation to Khrushchev is like a high card in a poker game, not to be dealt out without something in return. He has referred privately to the Foreign Ministers' meeting as a poker game."

As these lines were written, it was recognized here that some move by Moscow that would seem to be a concession to the President's viewpoint might be in the offing. If it came, the feeling here was that this might have justified the maneuverings on both sides. If it didn't come, Mr. Eisenhower was represented as still hopeful of an eventual change for the better on the issues raised at the Geneva Foreign Ministers conference.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

The memories of the GARs of journalism seldom bubble as joyously as Hugh Baillie's and I attribute the sustained Rover Boy spirit of this frisky old Spavin's autobiography, entitled "High Tension," to a distinctive personal vivacity and indifference to the acute problems of others.

"Let the burial parties shovel under the dead and while they are at it let me tell you about the time . . ."

How else would I account for the failure of this effervescent crock, with only a Bull Durham sack left for a stomach, to relate the high success and the hideous end of one of the great reporters who founded the reputation of Baillie's own united press as a foreign service in the first war?

I never met Henry Wood and I am told that he was a dull man with none of the noisy vanities of most of those who are listed in fading memories as stars. In 1914, Henry was the entire UP in Rome and, as such flashed the death of Pope Pius X, who has now been canonized and lies on view in a dim crypt beneath an altar at the left of the entrance of St. Peter's.

Henry had made a "connection" at the Vatican, always a "must" for a Rome correspondent, although in the time of Mussolini the only advisable connection was a monopolist named Monsignor Enrico Pucci, who somehow sewed things up. In the reign of Monsignor Pucci, it was dangerous to do business with any other source, whether a corporal of the Swiss Guard, a doorman or a prelate.

Pucci rode a bike with his cassock tucked up under his belt and made regular rounds to the U.P., the I.N.S., the Chicago Daily News and many other agencies and papers reaching into far places of the world. The Chicago Daily News once tried to saw Pucci off for economy, but though the better of it when Mussolini's fascist forerunner of our own newspaper guild totted up a bill for thousands of dollars for "back pay" for a term of 30 years.

There was one month's pay per year as a "gratuity" and another month per year for vacations which Pucci had never taken. There was double time for Sundays and many holidays of church and state, including new fascist holidays. All this was to bear compound interest. The Chicago Daily News weighed the case and decided to keep Monsignor Pucci on the active list. A noncomforming American agency once bought some tips from an upstart informant and was caught with a planted report of the nomination of a bishop in the Argentine. This error showed up the monsignor's rival and disposed of him. The agency went back to Pucci and all was serene again.

But Henry Wood was before Pucci's time and when his flash came through to New York that Pius X was dead, the Pope who tried so hard to prevent the war and to stop it, the United Press had a time for itself. But it was an anxious time, as well, because the A.P. came right out with a charge that the irresponsible U.P. was faking. The U.P. was personified by a little fellow in gaudy shirts named Roy Howard and by a corps of gangling, untried oafs on $17.50 to $27.50 a week who didn't assay an average of more than three years in high school.

The trouble with the A.P. was that the cardinal whose presence was required for official confirmation was out in the country, hours away. Thus the shutters went down and the U.P. was stuck with an excruciating scoop whispered out by a Swiss guard until, at last, the news became official.

In 1915, both the A.P. and the U.P. got code flashes from Rome on the death of Pope Benedict, but Wood followed that flash with another killing his first one. Baillie had the courage to stand pat all day with the A.P. dancing in the streets and editors berating the U.P. for its failure. Pope Benedict lived until 1922.

Wood moved up to Paris and relieved Phil Simms at the French front while Simms took over at British GHQ.

But in the sorry days of Roosevelt's first New Deal, Baillie found Wood in San Francisco, sick, down and out and, for worse irony, sleeping on the floor of a room at 340 9th St. where Baillie himself, years before, had been bureau manager.

Henry was raking leaves for Harry Hopkins. The U.P. rescued him and kept him in a nursing home until he died.

Town of Ulster Will Make Plans For Polio Clinic

A polio clinic for adults and children of the town of Ulster will be held at the Chambers School in the near future, it was announced today by Ted Musialkiewicz.

Musialkiewicz was appointed by Supervisor Alexander Banyo to name a committee and formulate plans for such a clinic.

Chairman Musialkiewicz has appointed the following committee:

Alfredrick Kilmer as co-chairman, Mrs. Harold Smith, RN, Mrs. Paul Chumra, RN, Mrs. Ralph McCumber, RN, Mrs. Rod DeVeau, RN, Mrs. Hilda Bream, Mrs. Stanley Van Kleeck, Mrs. William Palen, Mrs. Gerard Geuss, Mrs. Francis Smith, Mrs. Harold Macholdt, Mrs. Musialkiewicz and Mrs. Francis Short. Mrs. Short is president of the Chambers Parent-Teachers Association.

Representing the town board, besides Banyo, will be Millard Davis, justice of the peace, and Edward Elliott, councilman.

Musialkiewicz said today that his committee will meet with Miss Esther Schisa of the Ulster County Health Department at 8 p. m. today in the Lake Katrine Grange Hall to formulate plans and set a date for the clinic.

Banyo said he feels the clinic will offer an opportunity for everyone in the township who hasn't received the Salk vaccine to do so in an effort to blot out that dread disease, which in recent months has been reported on the increase.

USO Executive Addresses Chest BudgetCommittee

Thomas J. Kunz, regional executive for USO, addressed members of the Community Chest Budget Committee at a meeting Tuesday night at the YWCA building. Kunz stressed the importance of assuming responsibility for providing wholesome off-duty recreation for the two and one-half million men in service today.

USO maintains 267 installations throughout the world, and is supported mainly by Community Chests and United Funds, Kunz said. It is a participating agency in the Kingston Area Community Chest, Inc. George A. Beck, who serves as volunteer local chairman for USO, pointed out that there were 582 young men from Ulster County on active duty with the armed forces last year, and approximately 600 this year. In addition, there are at least 550 men from Kingston in the National Guard or in active reserve units who spend two weeks a year on active duty, Beck said.

The Community Chest Budget Committee is currently studying the budget requests of participating agencies in order to recommend to the Chest's board of directors the amount to be established as the goal for the 1960 Red Feather campaign, to be held in September and October. John J. Schwenk, budget chairman, presided at Tuesday night's meeting. USO has requested the sum of $1,587 from the local Chest for 1960.

Many Endanger Own Lives to See Rubbish Fire

Scores of spectators at the rubbish fire near the Burton Dietz service station on Route 28 about a mile west of the city early last night took their lives in their hands by their foolhardiness, a spokesman for the West Hurley Fire Department told The Freeman today.

The rubbish fire escaped into a pile of old tires and other combustible materials, shooting flames 40 or 50 feet into the air.

Damage was negligible and the fire was extinguished within five minutes after the department arrived with three pieces of apparatus and an ambulance.

First Assistant Chief Clarence Anderson said, however, that if the fire had gotten out of hand and spread to the filling station the consequences might have been disastrous.

He told The Freeman that spectators parked their cars and flocked to within a few feet of the flames.

If the fire for any unforeseen reason had reached the gasoline tanks they would have exploded, with serious consequences.

"People were very foolish to come so close," he said.

The blaze was within five feet of an out-building where Dietz stores combustibles when its progress was arrested.

Some 50 men under Anderson's direction were at the scene. Approximately 200 gallons of water sprayed from a 2½-inch hose brought the blaze under control.

Fire police of the West Hurley Fire Department, assisted by deputy sheriffs, handled traffic.

Port Ewen Boy, 7, Found by Police Near Bus Station

Horst Bier, 7, of Port Ewen, started out yesterday for the YMCA camp in the Shokan area, but a short chain of circumstances delayed him a bit.

His story unfolded at police headquarters where he was temporarily listed as lost after he was spotted near the Trailways bus terminal by Officer David Hughes and was taken to headquarters by Officers Raymond Wells and John Kennedy early last night.

Through the boy's habit of answering, "Yes" to nearly every question, police for some time had difficulty in learning his identity, but it finally came when Officer Bernard Fowler made telephone inquiries based on a name found on a shirt in the boy's packet of clothing.

The boy's father, Otto Bier was contacted between 9 and 10 p. m., and said he had been told that his son boarded the bus for camp. The father said he had taken the boy to the bus station and upon arriving found he lacked money. He went home for it leaving the boy at the bus station. When he returned from home, he said, he was told that the bus had left for camp with the boy on it.

Two Persons Are Injured in Crash

Two persons were injured late this morning in a two car collision at the intersection of 9W and the Tuytenbridge Road, a mile north of the Kingston State Police Barracks.

Mrs. Mildred Schoonmaker, 56, of RD 2, Box 195 New Paltz, was taken to Benedictine Hospital where X-rays showed she had suffered a fractured rib.

She was a passenger in a car operated by her daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Starkey of the same address.

Talivaldis Dukats, 38, of Stuart Manor, a passenger in the second vehicle operated by Julijs Zakis, 50, of Roslyn, Heights L. I., received a slight cut beside his left eye.

Trooper Joseph Ventriglia of the Kingston State Police said the Starkey car was proceeding north on 9W and the Zakis vehicle south when Zakis started to cross the white line to make a turn into the Tuytenbridge Road.

Mrs. Starkey pulled to the left to avoid a collision. At the same time however Zakis swerved back to the right. The vehicles were in head-on collision.

ALL TOGETHER, NOW — Pigtailed Italian Diane D'Este, 26, disdains her beauty. She couldn't care less if people compare her with Brigitte Bardot. School Board Denies Fear of Legislation On Integration Plan

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—The Little Rock School Board Tuesday night advanced the scheduled opening date for the city's high schools three weeks, then emphatically denied that fear of legislative interference with its integration plan had prompted the move.

The board voted unanimously to open the four high schools, closed for a year against integration, Aug. 12, instead of Sept. 8, when junior high and elementary schools will start their term.

Board President Everett Tucker Jr. said the board is "familiar with rumors that (Gov. Orval E.) Faubus might call the Legislature into session."

"But those rumors had nothing to do with this decision," Tucker said. "The board felt these students, who have been out of the public school system for a year, needed additional time to prepare for resuming their studies."

The new opening date was proposed in a motion by Ted Lamb, one of three board members who openly oppose Faubus' school policies. The motion was adopted, without discussion, after Supt. Terrell Powell had assured the board schools could be ready for opening by the new date.

Faubus, who called a special session in 1958 to obtain passage of laws which enabled him to close the schools against integration last fall, was out of the city and unavailable for comment.

But he has been critical of the board's plan to assign six Negroes to two once-white schools and has hinted the Legislature might be called to prevent it. A federal court struck down the 1958 school closing law last June.

matter of FACT

With the exception of the Battle of Valcour Island on Lake Champlain, almost all other naval engagements of the Revolution were between single vessels. Among the ships fighting for the Colonists were many privateers, ships outfitted by private citizens instead of by the government. The Colonists' ships sailed everywhere, dodging the huge British fleets, capturing over 600 enemy merchant vessels.

Poultry, Egg Producers Favor Controls System

ELLENVILLE, N. Y. (AP) — A spokesman for a newly formed association of poultry and egg producers said today the organization favors a system of production controls in the industry.

The spokesman, Edward Koenig, said a resolution approved at the association's formation meeting Monday night had been misunderstood or misinterpreted as urging the federal government to extend farm-price supports to eggs.

Koenig explained, however, that this was not the case. He said the resolution called for an appeal to the federal government to institute a system of production controls in the egg and poultry industry. Under such a system, the output of each producer would be limited.

Poultrymen in this area have been alarmed in recent months over low prices being received, saying that at times they have dropped below actual production costs.

On Monday night poultrymen from six downstate counties met and formed the New York State Poultry and Egg Producers Assn.

Agreement Near

in perfecting a different type of emergency service than the one for which they had been solely responsible is consistent with their traditional desire to assure the Thruway user of the best possible service.

In short, Natelson said, the Contractors recognize the experimental nature of the past emergency program and are willing to accept present changes and future programs in the same light.

The only remaining major problem to be resolved at the next meeting with the Authority in Albany today, Natelson said, concerns the term of the contract. Garage Contractors, he said, face a heavy additional investment in order to replace vehicles worn out by extensive use in Thruway service over the past five years and this investment should be protected by a reasonable term.

Steinkuller Still Listed as Serious

Paul S. Steinkuller, former manager of personnel at the Kingston IBM plant, is still listed in serious condition at Roosevelt Hospital, 59th Street and 9th Avenue, New York City. He suffered a heart attack July 28 in New York City.

Steinkuller was transferred in November, 1958, to the Military Products Division at World Headquarters, New York City, as a member of the staff of the director of personnel. More recently he was transferred to the Washington office.

Jury Is Expected

kins to Judge Deckelman to reconvene the regular March grand jury.

Remains Adjourned

The March grand jury has remained in adjourned session since it completed its work and is subject to call by the Court to hear any matter which might arise before it is formally dissolved in the Fall when another grand jury is convened. Under the law a grand jury must always be available for emergency matters although it may not be actively in session. The March Grand jury is the last regularly constituted grand jury.

In moving for reconvening of the March Grand jury Tompkins noted that there was a serious question as to whether the case could be resubmitted to the special kickback grand jury which returned the original indictment. The prosecution asked therefore for reconvening of the March grand jury.

State Announces Nurse Education Joint Projects

Dr. James E. Allen Jr., State Commissioner of Education, and President Hollis L. Caswell of Teachers College, Columbia University announced today a five-year joint project in nurse education to be supported by a grant of $612,370 from the W. W. Kellogg Foundation.

The program, involving the State Education Department, Teachers College and certain community colleges under the supervision of the State university, will lead to the degree of associate in applied science in nursing and will prepare students to take the state examination for licensure as a registered professional nurse following a two-year course of study.

The Kellogg Foundation has granted $375,760 to the Regents of the University of the State of New York in support of a State Education department office to direct and coordinate the entire program. The sum of $236,610 has been granted to Teachers' College, Columbia University, for the preparation of teachers in associate degree programs, curriculum conferences, consultation services and the development of instructional materials.

A state advisory committee, broadly representative of all interests in nursing in the state, is expected to be appointed in the near future. The expansion of nursing education in community colleges is expected to assist greatly the present hospital schools of nursing in meeting the pressing nursing needs in the state.

Says Hoffa Paid Underworld Debt With Union Funds

WASHINGTON (AP)-The Senate committee investigating rackets charged today that James R. Hoffa paid "a long-standing debt to the Chicago underworld" with three million dollars of Teamsters Union health and welfare funds.

The committee in a report to the Senate, said that Hoffa, president of the Teamsters Union, personally swung the deals to please the underworld and benefit the family of Paul Dorfman. It said Dorfman is the man who introduced Hoffa to "Midwest mob society."

In Chicago, members of the Dorfman family were not available for comment.

Deals Called Costly

The committee said Midwest Teamsters Union members paid dearly for the deals since 1950, in drastic reduction of health-welfare insurance benefits and inflated charges for the insurance.

The committee also filed two other reports with the Senate on its 1958 investigations, alleging:

1. That the brothers Max and Louis Block, who since have resigned as officials of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of North America, "milked the treasuries" of two New York locals. The report said they got $241,000 out of the locals' treasures for other purposes.

2. That the A & P stores' eastern division "participated in an elaborate conspiracy" with Max Block to force 10,000 A & P employes into his union under a 45-hour work week contract instead of the 40-hour week rival unions demanded.

Says Cooperation Given

In New York, E. L. Reynolds, A&P eastern division president, said full cooperation had been given the Senate committee in supplying information about company relations with the union, in which Block was a former power.

"The records submitted," Reynolds said, "clearly demonstrated that A&P's negotiations with the union were fairly and ethically conducted in strict accord with all state and federal regulations."

The three reports followed one filed by the committee Tuesday charging that Hoffa will "destroy the decent labor movement" in this country unless someone curbs him.

The reports, filed by Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark), break a jam that has delayed an official statement of findings in the committee's far-reaching investigation last year.

Have Not Agreed

The senators still have not agreed on what they learned from a politically tinged 1958 investigation of Walter Reuther's United Auto Workers Union, and there was no indication of when they might agree.

In its blast at Hoffa, the committee said "there does not exist in the record of the committee a more shocking or flagrant story of betrayal of union members and their families."

It said the three million dollars represented commissions and fees paid since 1950 to Allen Dorfman and Rose Dorfman, son and wife of Paul Dorfman, and reported that $1,650,000 of the amount represented overcharges against the union. The Dorfmans served as brokers for huge health-welfare insurance programs of the Central Conference of Teamsters and the Michigan Conference of Teamsters.

"The evidence is clear," the committee said, "that James R. Hoffa used these two (conference) funds to pay off a long-standing debt to the Chicago underworld and to the corrupt labor leader who introduced him to Midwest mob society--Paul Dorfman."

The committee said the Dorfmans had no experience in the insurance field and no office space "until a few months before Hoffa successfully maneuvered the insurance business to them in early 1950 and 1951."

Since then, it added, Allen Dorfman "pyramided his friendship with Hoffa into a financial empire of 11 insurance agencies and about 10 other business entities."

Tuesday's unanimous report also criticized Hoffa, saying: "It would be hard to find a labor leader who has so shamelessly abused his members or his trust."

Authorities Push Probe of Tanker Ditching in Ocean

LANGLEY AIR FORCE BASE, Va. (AP)—Air Force authorities today pushed an investigation of the ditching of a big tanker plane in the Atlantic 200 miles east of Bermuda. One crewman was missing, and an intensive air-sea search was under way for him.

Seven others were rescued when the six-engined craft plopped into the ocean Tuesday near the Panamanian tanker Imperial St. Lawrence.

The Coast Guard cutter Mendota and the St. Lawrence headed toward a mid-Atlantic rendezvous today when the rescued men would be transferred. Their condition was not known.

The missing crewman was identified as Airman 2.C. Thomas M. Payton of nearby Hampton, Va., a refueling operator.

The unloaded KB50 was en route back to Langley from the Azores via Bermuda on a routine crew transfer, Air Force authorities said. It was attached to the 427th Air Refueling Squadron here.

Officials here had no word on the cause of the crash.

DO YOU REMEMBER

By SOPHIE MILLER

The Kingston Daily Freeman of Aug. 31, 1927, was given me by Harry L. Edson. The following appeared on front page. Officer Leroy Sproul of Matawan, N. J., saw an automobile speed by a stop signal, without taking a good look at the passenger in the next car, he commandeered it and overtook the offender within a few blocks. The owner of and passenger in the car which aided him in chase was John D. Rockefeller who used to give out new dimes as gifts. Mr. Rockefeller, gave Officer Leroy Sproul of Matawan, five new dimes. Perhaps Mr. Rockefeller enjoyed the exciting chase or liked the way Officer Sproul handled the situation.

The Board of Public Works had their meeting and traffic signals, and zoning were discussed in 1927. This item read in part: "The need of a uniform system of traffic signals to comply with standard practice through the state has been up before the board for some time. The board desires to install a system of signals similar to that in use in the majority of other cities in New York State so that tourists will not become confused by encountering a different set of signals here than used elsewhere. The Police Board is also working on the problem and will submit its suggestions as to the type of signal and location to the Board of Public Works."

I wonder what will happen in years to come with traffic signals and more cars. In good olden days of horses and perhaps horse-sense there were accidents, too. A horse and a driver did not always agree.

There is a coverage of the Ulster County Fair. It was held then at Ellenville. They wrote in part: "On the main street of the midway, you can have your fortune told or have an expert read the bumps on your head. You can enjoy the merry-go-round, the ferris wheel, a pony ride... The zoo in which wild animals are shown is a popular haunt. Here white woodchucks and bears show some of the terror which confront the people of the mountains."

It seems there was an admission to the Ulster County Fair when held in Ellenville. It is free at our Forsyth Park. Item reads: "There are free acts worth more than the price of admission. Twice each afternoon the Watson's Dog Show is given in front of the grand stand. Then there is "Daredevil Johnston" and "Reckless Ruby" who made a balloon ascension with Miss Ruby doing a parachute drop which is said to be a thriller...

The cows and chickens were there of course and among the cattle exhibitors were some new comers, "among them being John Beatty of Suydam Farms. ...All cattle are from Ulster and Sullivan counties" that year. There were also auto races besides the balloon ascension and parachute drops and fireworks display. It also seems the State Troopers under Captain Daniel Fox did trick riding in front of the grandstand. McLennon jumped through blazing hoops. The troopers had been riding at the Ellenville fair for several years and their exhibitions were always a main feature of the fair and brought crowds. They had horses race also. Besides the Citizens Band of Kingston under direction of Harry Maisenhelder gave evening band concerts. Old timers tell me it was on the style of the Dutchess County Fair.

Father, Son Are Accused of Murder In Death of Baker

ITHACA, N. Y. (AP)—A father and son were in jail today accused of beating to death a man who allegedly tried to seduce the son's young boy.

Albert J. King, 61, and his son Donald, 29, were charged Tuesday with first-degree murder.

Dist. Atty. Roger B. Sovocool said that the Kings accosted Melvin Knapp, 35-year-old bakery employe, on a city street July 8, drove him 12½ miles out of the city to a rural road, beat him with their fists and a rock, and left his body propped against a tree.

The next day, Sovocool said, the Kings returned, removed Knapp's clothing, and doused the body with acid and lime.

Two days later, the younger King went back, moved the body to a gravel pit nearby and partially covered it, Sovocool said.

The body was found by sheriff's deputies Monday.

"Knapp was supposed to be fooling around with a male child of Donald King," Sovocool said. "He made some advances."

The boy, one of seven children of the younger King and his wife, is about seven.

Knapp had roomed in the same house as the family. It is owned by Mrs. King's mother. The elder King lived down the street.

Knapp's body was found shortly after the younger King was arrested in Rochester on a charge of violating parole from a rape conviction in Seneca County.

The elder King had been arrested July 14 on a charge of second-degree arson that had been pending against him since a fire in a hotel-bar in Ithaca in 1957.

The elder King had served time in Clinton State Prison at Dannemora and Matteawan State Hospital for the Criminal Insane, police said.

Two Smokejumpers Killed in Idaho

Grangeville, Idaho (AP) — Two young smokejumpers from New York State were killed Tuesday when their light plane crashed while landing. Three other persons were injured.

The victims were Gary Williams, 21, of West Valley, Cattaraugus County, N. Y., a forestry student at Montana State University, and John Rolf, 22, of Northville, Fulton County, N. Y., a smokejumper for three years.

Smokejumpers are men who parachute to the scene of forest fires. Hundreds of firefighters are battling a series of fires in western Montana and northern Idaho.

The plane crashed at the Moose Creek landing strip of the Nez Perce National Forest in Idaho.

A witness said it appeared that the plane was pushed along by a tail wind while landing. It ran over the end of the runway and plowed into a stack of gasoline barrels.

New Hampshire was the first independent state in this country, announcing its independence of Great Britain three weeks before the 12 other colonies declared their independence on July 4, 1776.

Conference Fails To Take Police Out of Politics

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — The president of the Police Conference of New York State says the conference has failed in its original purpose — to remove police from politics.

"It is self-evident that this has not been accomplished," said Police Sgt. Harold J. Kuehlewind of suburban Cheektowaga Tuesday.

He said that although policemen's requests for better working conditions and pay were, as he put it, suppressed by politicians, the conference has been able to put such questions directly to the public.

"If the police are doing their job properly," he said, "the public will support them."

He said the conference, which claims 50,000 members, wants to awaken the public to the needs of policemen. He said it was neither for nor against unions.

The conference is holding its four-day 34th annual meeting.

In San Juan, Puerto Rico, where Rockefeller is attending the annual Governors Conference, an aide said Rockefeller made known to Govs. Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey and Abraham A. Ribicoff of Connecticut his plan to propose a tax-relief measure next year for out-of-state residents.

Out-of-staters who work in New York complain that the New York income tax discriminates against them, since they cannot claim as many deductions as New Yorkers can.

The Rockefeller aide said details of the tax-relief proposal had not been worked out, and no agreement had been reached on a compact required for tax collection purposes.

Ribicoff said there was no basic agreement yet on the proposals. His understanding, he said, is that more discussions will be held.

NEW YORK (AP)—Selling accelerated in "war babies" early this afternoon as the stock market showed its worst loss since mid-July. Trading was fairly active.

Losses among some of the electronics and aircrafts ran to as much as 6 points. Key stocks declined from fractions to a point or so generally.

Prospects of a thaw in the cold war were emphasized by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's latest statement. At the same time the market was due for a technical correction of its latest upsurge to record highs.

Many stop - loss orders were touched off as the market continued to settle backward early in the day. These are orders to sell at a certain price below previous quotations to protect traders against excessive losses.

Steels, motors, rails, utilities, coppers, oils, airlines, chemicals, rubbers and drugs joined in the general decline.

Turnover was slightly above Tuesday's routine volume.

The decline, though sharp, was considerably less than the break of July 13 which was based on concern over the approaching steel strike deadline.

Motorola dropped 2 points and Polaroid more than 3. DuPont, a big gainer recently, clipped about 6 points from its high price.

Losses exceeding a point were taken by North American Aviation, Martin Co. and General Dynamics.

Losses of about 2 were shown by General Tire and Southern Pacific.

Jones & Laughlin, down more than a point, was about the worst of the major steelmakers.

International Telephone and Pan American World Airways were off a point or so in active dealings.

Government bonds were firm.

Set Date for Testimonial For John H. Moehle, Aug. 13

Plans for a giant outdoor testimonial to John H. Moehle, who recently resigned as principal of the Onteora Central Schools District, has been announced by a committee headed by Harry Allen of Pine Hill, a member of the Onteora Board of Education.

The testimonial reception will be held on Sunday, Sept. 13, between 2 p. m. and 5 p. m. at the Funcrest Hotel in Pine Hill.

Serving on the committee with Allen are four members of the 1959-60 Board of Education: Philip Gordon, president; Mrs. Marie Kleine, Mrs. Bohumir Larys, Arthur P. Knight and William Frankle.

There will be a buffet and music and a presentation will be made to Mr. and Mrs. Moehle, who will leave the district early in September for a post in Long Island.

Tickets may be obtained from any member of the committee. Thor Krogh, Marion Umhey and Charles J. Tiano were named to the publicity committee for the event.

Further details will be announced later.

GOING AWAY PRESENT—Mrs. Marie Kleine, a member of the Onteora Central School Board of Education, presents a painting by Allen Cochrane to John H. Moehle, who recently resigned as principal of the Onteora district to accept a post in Long Island. The presentation was made at a surprise party tendered him by more than 60 people at Mead's Mountain House in Woodstock. The painting, purchased by the group as a "going away" present for Mr. and Mrs. Moehle, is a faithful reproduction of the old swimming hole at Shady.

Authorize Bids For Purchase New Road Machinery

A resolution empowering town superintendent of highways, Albert Cashdollar to advertise for bids for purchase of a D-4 Traxcavator split the Woodstock Town Board this week, but was passed by a 3-2 vote, with the three Republican members voting for the resolution.

Supervisor Joseph Fitzsimmons, chairman of the board, offered the resolution and it was seconded by Councilman John Pike, after a lengthy discussion.

Councilman Tobie Geertsema (Ind.) and Justice of the Peace Dixon McGrath, the lone Democrat on the board, voted against it.

The special meeting was called to consider a request by Superintendent Cashdollar that he be authorized to purchase a new Traxcavator (described as a caterpillar with front end loader) at a cost of $17,958 from the H. O. Penn Machinery Company of Poughkeepsie.

According to Cashdollar, the caterpillar now being used by the town was purchased on Nov. 28, 1951, at a cost of $13,319.00.

The motion authorizing Cashdollar to seek bids for a new machine followed a lengthy debate on relative merit of repairing the present machine and hiring a replacement on rental at the state price or turn in the old and buy a new one. It was pointed out that delievery would take from 30 days to six weeks.

Woodstock Girls Scout Winners

Woodstock girls won seven awards at the second session of Ulster County Girl Scout Camp Wendy near Wallkill.

Winners of best camper of the unit prizes were: Tinkerbell Unit, Kate Greene; Greenwood, Kathy Robertello; Romany, Ann Pachner.

Susan Greene and Barbara Steinlauf came home with swimming awards and Kathy Greene and Karen Steinlauf won beginners' swimming cards.

Closing ceremonies were held Friday night, with a banquet and presentation of awards by Miss Barbara Plate, camp director.

Religious Fallacies Are Basis for Sermon Theme for Rev. Sands

The Gospel for the 11th Sunday after Trinity—St. Luke 18: 9-18, one of the parables of Jesus, furnishes the theme for the sermon the Rev. G. Oliver Sands plans to preach in Christ Lutheran Church at the 11 a. m. service in Woodstock on August 9.

"Four Religious Fallacies" will show the mistakes so many of us make in our worship, as did the publican in the story—so often we compare ourselves to others: "Everyone who exalteth himself shall be humbled and everyone who humbleth himself shall be exalted." "God, be thou merciful to me a sinner" should be our earnest plea. Come and worship with us.

The book of Ecclesites forms the basis for the discussion of "The Search for a True Witness" in the adult class which meets with the Sunday School, with classes for all at 9:45 a. m.

Meeting Dates

There will be a food sale on the church grounds on Saturday, Aug. 8, at 10 a. m.

The Fellowship Family meets on Sunday evening, Aug. 16, at the church grounds. There will be refreshments, devotions and fun for the entire family. Please reserve the date.

Lutheran Fair Day Scheduled Thursday

Thursday, Aug. 6, is a big day for all members and friends of Christ Lutheran Church in Woodstock. That is the day that has been set aside for the annual fair and cafeteria.

Articles which the women of the church have made with their own hands, such as many kinds of aprons, pillow cases and fancy things will be featured at one booth. Rugs for which they sewed the material last winter will also be on sale. Members with a "green thumb" will have plants to offer. There will be a fish pond for the younger set and a miscellaneous table will feature things for which one person has no further use, but which another may find useful.

These booths will open at 2 p. m. with the cafeteria style, home baked supper being served at 5 p. m. The public is invited.

curved highway immediately south of said bridge constitutes a further hazard in that inadequate and improper drainage is provided for surface waters and the vision of operators of vehicles at said point is necessarily obscured due to the grade and alignment of the highway.

4. That due to the age of the said bridge and the increasing traffic and weight load of commercial vehicles using the same, the flooring of said bridge has now become unsafe. This constitutes a particular hazard since increased traffic over this bridge can be reasonably anticipated after completion of the present Kingston arterial route now under construction.

To correct and eliminate the foregoing hazard, the undersigned therefore respectfully request that the dangerous conditions presently existing at the highway approach to said bridge be corrected and that the bridge be reconstructed and enlarged to accommodate increased traffic in a safe manner or, in the alternative, that a new and larger bridge be constructed in accordance with some engineering practices as soon as practicable.

Will Make Survey

It was voted at a meeting of the Port Ewen Businessmen's Association this week to make a survey asking residents of Port Ewen to give their views as to what type of business is wanted and needed in Port Ewen and which the town does not have. Cards will be mailed to the residents soon and they are asked to cooperate with the committee by filling them out and mailing to the committee which consists of Cleon Robinson as chairman, Rita Bonville, Ethel Howard and the Rev. Carl C. Caskey.

Scheduled Aug. 27

With so many items on the agenda it was felt that the August meeting should not be dispensed with, therefore it will be held the last Thursday in August.

Following the meeting a social hour was enjoyed with Reupen Gullian showing black and white and colored movies of the Mardi Gras night held in Ross Park and sponsored by the businessmen's group. Other events held during the week of celebration in the Town of Esopus were also shown.

Zale Liese, vice president, presided in the absence of Dr. William Harris, president.

In Pennsylvania, one of the states most heavily hit, there were 28,538 idle workers in steel allied industries at the week end. They include 9,157 railroaders and showed an increase of 1,000 in less than three days.

Layoffs in other states and areas included 5,000 in western New York, 3,093 in Maryland, 4,361 in Alabama, 500 in the San Francisco Bay area, 3,225 in Colorado, 2,200 in Wisconsin, 2,300 in Indiana, 1,500 in Detroit. In Utah the number of unemployment claims have jumped from 3,000 to 4,500. A majority of the new claims were from idled coal miners.

Leaves From Boyle's Notebook

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Will American women bow to foreign dictate and expose their kneecaps?

The House of Dior in Paris says they will.

A few years ago U.S. women humbly and gladly wore longer skirts in compliance with the Dior "new look" edict. But the new House of Dior decree for knee-length dresses is bound to be challenged.

Not by the men. By the women.

American men, by and large, are always in favor of shorter skirts—so long as their own wives don't wear them. They welcome the prospect of the breeze-swept feminine knee, just so the knee doesn't belong in their household.

Women don't mind following any clothing style, no matter how ridiculous, so long as it is the clothing that looks ridiculous.

A prime example: the brief-lived "sack look." It made a woman look like she was ambling along in a tent. But it was the package that looked ridiculous—not the contents it veiled.

Real Problem Ahead

When a fashion makes the woman herself look ridiculous, however, it is bound to run into real trouble. And that is the problem the House of Dior seems to be boldly running up against.

The average feminine kneecap serves a highly functional purpose, but it is not an ornament of nature. Poets have sung the charms of practically all other parts of the feminine anatomy. But who ever wrote an ode to a kneecap?

Now and then you do hear of a girl with lovely dimpled kneecaps.

They are also—let's face it—often on the knobby side. Go to any beach and see for yourself.

When you get right down to it—and pray let's do—only about one in 10 girls has legs she can look at in the mirror herself without a feeling verging from mild depression to total despair.

They bow out too much or they bend in too much. They are too thick or too thin. Why should she expose them willingly in a losing competition with the few girls whose gams are charming?

Look at 1920 Fashions

All she has to do to bolster her in this decision is to glance in the family album and see how mom or grandma looked in the 1920s. That was a real short-skirted era, too—the dresses were above the knees, or seemed to be. And they wore rolled stockings.

Ugh! Women never, before or since, looked so outrageously ridiculous.

Can the House of Dior make them look that way again? We doubt it.

As a lady we have been married to a long time remarked, "Sure I'd wear one of those short skirts out of the house—if the house caught on fire!"

Busy Playwright

NEW YORK (AP)—A leading playwright on the summer stock circuit is England's Agatha Christie, represented by five melodramas, of which only one, "Witness for the Prosecution," has been seen on Broadway. The others are "The Hollow," "Spider's Web," "Towards Zero" and "The Mousetrap."

Border Crossing Burglar

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—A $7 burglary at an industrial plant resulted in a jurisdictional problem for police. Evidence indicated that the burglar entered through a door in the city of Madison and left by one in the adjoining town of Blooming Grove. The building straddled the city-town line. Officers finally decided to make the investigation a joint venture.

Remanded to Jail On Larceny Charge

Accused of taking a $450 watch from the home of Mrs. Donald Williams, Crown Street, this city, and selling it for five dollars, 20-year-old Marie Estelle Faria, Union Center Road, Ulster Park, was in custody here today facing a charge of second degree grand larceny.

The defendant pleaded innocent Tuesday night before City Judge Aaron E. Klein, who fixed bail at $1,000 property bond or $500 cash, and adjourned the case until 9 a. m. Thursday. In lieu of bail, the girl was remanded to the Ulster County Jail.

Detectives Albert Hutton Jr. and William Slover went to the Burlington county jail at Mt. Holly, N. J. Tuesday and took the girl in custody on a grand larceny warrant.

Hutton said the defendant had been picked up by New Jersey State Police early last week on a charge of being a disorderly person and later she was sentenced to 14 days in the Burlington County Jail. Hutton said the $450 watch which the defendant was accused of selling for five dollars, has been recovered.

Edgar A. Guest, Famed Poet, Dies In His Sleep

DETROIT, Mich. (AP)—Edgar A. Guest, famed poet whose works were known to newspaper readers all over the world, died today in his sleep. He would have been 78 Aug. 20.

Cause of death was not determined immediately but physicians indicated the poet had suffered a cerebral hemorrhage.

At the height of his popularity, Guest was among the most widely read men of his time. His name was most frequently associated with the first lines of one of his most famous poems: "It takes a heap o' livin' in a house t' make it home."

Guest's daily poem still appeared in the Detroit Free Press and other newspapers up to the time of his death, despite his bad health.

Often called the "poet of the plain people," he preferred to be known as a newspaperman. He was a reporter, exchange editor and a columnist at the Free Press before devoting his life to poetry.

At his peak his syndicated daily poem appeared in nearly 300 American newspapers. He also produced 17 volumes of poetry and for several years appeared on a national radio program.

Born in England

Guest was born in Birmingham, England, Aug. 20, 1881. He came to Detroit with his family while a boy. After attending public schools here he worked in a drug store before joining the Free Press.

While exchange editor at the Free Press he began to write poetry, often slipping it into the newspaper as an exchange item. When his secret was discovered, he was assigned to write poetry once a week. He later wrote a daily column, "Breakfast Chit - Chat."

Guest was associated with the motion picture industry for several months in 1935 as a writer and later had his own television show in New York. His son Edgar A. (Bud) Guest Jr. is widely known in the Michigan area as the philosophic master-of-ceremonies on a radio variety program.

Guest's poems extolled the everyday things of life. His last published poem appeared in today's Free Press and was entitled "The Little Mind."

The poet's wife, Ellen, died in 1945. Besides his son, Guest is survived by a daughter, Janet.

Sauters Are Charged As Disorderly Folk

Donald J. Sauter, 32, of 22½ Foxhall Avenue and Ruth Sauter, 26, same address, were arrested early Tuesday night by Patrolmen Floyd Krom and George Deyo on charges of disorderly conduct after police investigated a complaint.

Sauter pleaded innocent before City Judge Aaron E. Klein last night, and his wife pleaded innocent in court today. Their cases were adjourned until Friday at 9 a. m.

Sauter told police he is a stock clerk and his wife was listed as a camp worker. Police accused both of using indecent language and shouting in a loud tone of voice causing a disturbance in the neighborhood of their home.

Perry Blames

he said it would seem to be the other way around.

"I have a lot to say tonight," said Perry, "but I want it understood before I start that I'm not talking just for publicity."

In his mention of the uptown street repair situation, Perry also noted that people in the Fifth Ward were paying their 75 per cent for a sewer project, and he asked: "Why should people in my ward have to pay when others get work done for nothing?"

"I don't know why things are done this way. Is that justice? I'm not only speaking for my ward. When it comes to money, I speak for all the people of the city. I speak the truth. I argued in this council eight years when we had Republican mayors."

Perry said he did not have to seek publicity through his position as an alderman: "I have a job," he said, "and it's a damm good job."

Ryan Talks on Contract

Alderman Ryan, in explaining the change in making the garbage contract award said the city in the past has been accepting bids from persons without past experience, and after the low bidder is favored, it has been found that he does not meet requirements.

It was his understanding, he said, that Mayor Radel was going to take steps toward changing the method of submitting bids so that accepted bidders are ready to perform when contracts are awarded.

Regrets $5,000 Additional

Ryan said it was regrettable that the city was forced to accept a bid which is some $5,000 a year above that of the lowest bidder, but it was found that garbage collections must continue uninterrupted and the men who formerly held the contracts were the only ones fully prepared to do the work. None of the others, he said, appeared able to provide a fully accepted disposal area, and it appears that through a cooperative arrangement, the three who had the contract were the only ones able to offer an approved area.

Ryan told of township restrictions on hauling and disposal of garbage or refuse in town limits, and noted that up to 3 or 3:30 p. m., Saturday "still had no place" fully approved for disposal. He had health department approval but no permit to haul and dump in the proposed Maple Hill area of the Town of Rosendale.

Joseph Krawjewski, of 454 Washington Avenue, had offered to collect on all three of the city's routes for $66,000 on a three-year basis. The cost for three years for each of the routes as accepted Saturday will be $27,000.

Perry Scores Delay

Contracts were awarded to Andy Buzzanco, 217 Abeel Street, downtown route; Joseph Darwak, 97 Cedar Street, uptown, and Byron Gerlak, Sawkill Road, central. They previously held the contracts and have had long established disposal arrangements.

"Why did the mayor wait so long," before deciding on awarding the contracts, Perry asked. Ryan said it was because of the way in which the schedule is set up in calling for the bids and in allowing all comers to bid without first giving full certification of fulfillment of contract. He indicated that if the mayor's plan works, this method will be changed.

Perry, again referring to unfair practices in street repair recalled that about two months ago a resident of Augusta Street, which is considered not officially an approved street, "asked for two loads of fill" as a means of making the street passable. Ninth Ward Alderman William K. Bodenweber, he said had sought action on a promise that it would be delivered, but was told by the public works superintendent that he would not go into a private street.

Lack of action on this, he held, was as unfair to him as the difference he felt existed in two sections of the Pearl Street area.

Writes on Heating Plant

A copy of Mayor Radel's letter to Alderman Frank C. Sass, as chairman of the council's building and supply committee, and explaining the need for improvements at the city's central heating plant, was read and left with the finance committee.

The aldermen, after conference, decided they wanted more time for study of the proposal and a recessed meeting subject to call of the chair was proposed.

The mayor referred to collapse of a section of ceiling in the plant last fall. It "fell over the boilers taking with it pipes, electrical wires, lights" and other equipment. Sprays of water and steam also damaged the room.

Efficiency Cut

Since then heating efficiency has been cut, and it has been found that a three-inch pipeline "is perforated and rusted. It has also been found that one of three stokers must be replaced, and he noted other trouble. Repair of the stoker alone, he had been told, he said, would cost above $500, and he felt that other repair work on the old system "would be a waste."

Through the years, he noted, from a third to a half of the coal bill has been for labor and hauling, and at times men were taken from snow removal work to assist with the supply.

Heat from the plant goes to all city hall offices, including the police department, central fire station, the city laboratory and tumor clinic, municipal building, the public works garage, Municipal Auditorium, a utility building and offices, and the water department's garage and workshop.

Sees Reduced Costs

Modernizing the plant for use of fuel oil, he felt, plus effective work on the pipe system, would reduce operation costs. He asked the building committee to compile specifications and ask for bids, and he offered it his assistance.

Alderman Sass, the committee chairman, who has been ill, was absent last night. Also absent were Hirschell Mayes (R) First Ward, who has been ill for some time, William K. Bodenweber (D) Ninth Ward, and Richard K. Wood (D) 12th Ward.

$31,000 Claim Filed

A claim of $31,000 for injuries suffered by Albert Simmons, a minor, of Rhinecliff, at Kingston Point Beach June 28, was filed by the boy's father, Albert Simmons. Harry H. Hill, Jr., of Rhinecliff, is listed as the attorney. The sum claimed for the boy is $25,000, and that asked for the father, is $6,000. The claim was referred to Corporation Counsel William A. Kelly.

It is held that the boy suffered a foot injury through making contact with the anchor unit or chain of a float in the bathing area.

John Kelly, of 100 Elmendorf Street filed a claim for $287.47 due to reported damage over the July 4 weekend to his property when his cellar flooded with sewage water.

A request from Mrs. Gladys Williams, of 28 Warren Street, in a letter dated July 23, sought relief from conditions in a Tannery Brook area, and at her curb and sidewalk. It was referred to the Board of Public Works.

Plans to Fill Brook

Mrs. Williams claims that because of conditions in the brook area, the city is using her property for drainage "without easement" and unless remedial action is taken by Aug. 10 she will be forced to fill in the brook section involved.

Also, she said, that unless the curb and sidewalk conditions, which cause flooding and loss of top soil, are corrected, her insurance company threatens to cancel her liability policy.

The letter noted that she had telephoned Mayor Radel, and contacted Alderman Wood, who investigated conditions. She had been told by a public works employe, she said, that property owners must clean out sections of Tannery Brook on their lands, but she said she will hold the city responsible for damage. Part of the brook has been piped, she noted, and she seeks piping of it from Linderman Avenue to Warren Street.

Proposes Committee

Mayor Radel, in his letter proposing the "temporary committee" to deal with parking problems and expansion of facilities, noted that several cities in the state, with "sanction of the State Legislature, have established parking authorities to operate present municipal facilities, and pursue the possibilities of creating or enlarging all municipal parking accommodations in the entire city."

"It is my intent in the next several weeks," the mayor wrote, "to contact the various cities now under this method of operation, and secure all pertinent information to ascertain whether it would be beneficial for our city to adopt the plan."

Kingston, he felt, "could very well use" enlarged facilities, "in each of the major business areas to perpetuate the present retail and commercial establishments, and to serve as an inducement for others to locate here."

To Attend Sessions

Two members of the city laboratory staff were granted permission to attend sessions in the mid-west, and Edmund T. Cloonan, water department superintendent was authorized to attend the fall meeting of the New York Section, American Water Works Association in Upper Saranac Lake.

Dr. Herbert Derman, laboratory director, was authorized to attend a joint meeting in Chicago Sept. 5 to 13 of the American Society of Clinical Pathologists and the College of American Pathologists, and Lionel B. Herrington, was permitted to attend a continuation course for Medical Technologists in Milwaukee Sept. 1 to 4.

Polling Places Approved

A list of polling places in districts of the 13 wards for the November election was approved. The only changes noted were in the Sixth Ward, first district, which will be at the No. 3 School, 114 Chambers Street, instead of at 2 St. Mary's Street, and 10th Ward, second district, which wil be at the Kingston Maennechor hall, 37 Greenkill Avenue instead of at the R. Brenner building, 72 Clinton Avenue.

A report of the traffic committee approving stop signs at Pine and St. James Streets, Emerson and Pearl Streets, was adopted.

A resolution by Alderman Lawrence Woerner, Fourth Ward, asking for a street light at Rock and Ulster Streets, and one by Arthur Smith, Eighth Ward, asking for a better light on New Street, were referred to the BPW. Another similarily referred by Alderman Donald M. Hastings, Third Ward, asked for remedial action of flood conditions on Gage Street due to lack of storm sewer facilities.

John Burroughs Mementos Shown In H-C Exhibit

A window exhibit on John Burroughs that is drawing a great deal of attention is now on display at the Town Hall, Port Ewen. The exhibit is the fourth in a series being sponsored by the Town of Esopus Hudson-Champlain Committee.

John Burroughs, the famous naturalist and writer, was a resident of the Town of Esopus from 1873 until 1920. He resided at West Park where his home "Riverby" was visited by many famous people of the country, including Henry Ford, Thomas A. Edison and Harvey S. Firestone, all friends of Burroughs. Equally famous was his cabin "Slabsides" in the hills back of West Park where Burroughs did much of his writing.

The exhibit contains many photographs that trace the life and career of John Burroughs. The photographs are accompanied by a narrative text, giving a chronological account of Burroughs' interesting and varied career.

Also included in the display are 12 books by and about John Burroughs. Included are the books "Pepacton", "Fresh Fields", "Wake Robin", "Signs and Seasons" and "Whitman: A Study," all written by John Burroughs. These five books were originally part of Burroughs' own personal library.

The photographs and books which comprise the display were furnished by Elizabeth Burroughs Kelley, granddaughter of John Burroughs. A book also included in the exhibit is "John Burroughs: Naturalist" written by Mrs. Kelley. This book was published this spring and received many highly favorable reviews. A warm recommendation was given the book by the Book-of-the-Month Club News for June.

Benjamin Stoddert, a patriotic businessman from Georgetown, D.C. became the first U.S. secretary of the navy in 1798.

New Jersey Egg Crisis Is Over

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. (AP) —Three experts say New Jersey's egg crisis is over. But it may come back again and again.

"I think this crisis is going to come in waves for the next five or 10 years until it finally becomes established that what is happening is that you can easily overproduce in this industry and that only a small overproduction can cause you a lot of pain."

That was the forecast of Dr. John C. Huttar of the Grange League Federation on the Rutgers University forum radio broadcast Tuesday.

State Secretary of Agriculture Phillip Alampi said:

"We have too many people with too many chickens laying too many eggs. It's that simple."

Alampi, Huttar and H. Roberts Rapp, a Farmingdale hatchery operator, agreed that underconsumption was not a factor in New Jersey's egg crisis. They proposed more marketing research and more uses for eggs.

Huttar said the slump in the egg market that dropped prices to prewar levels was probably over until 1960.

Newspaper Distributor Pleads Innocent

NEW YORK (AP) — The president of a newspaper distributing firm has pleaded innocent to charges of extorting $2,100 from a New Jersey news distributor.

The defendant, William J. Fello, 52, of New York City, is president of the Bi-County News Co. Inc., of Garden City, N. Y., and a member of the Newspaper and Mail Deliverers Union (Ind.).

He was released in $2,500 bail Tuesday after entering the plea in General Sessions Court.

He, his brother Rocco, 41, and John Lawrence Jr., 41, were indicted last week on charges of shaking down John Flystra, president of the Passaic County News Co., of Paterson, N. J., by threatening labor trouble.

Six others were indicted earlier last month in a crackdown on extortion schemes that the district attorney's office estimated cost newspaper deliverers $110,000.

Strike Lasts One Day On Kniting Mill

SENECA FALLS, N. Y. (AP)—Construction of the Seneca Knitting Mill resumed today after a one-day strike that the company said was caused by disagreement between two unions.

Members of a carpenters union picketed the project Tuesday. Their spokesman said it was to protest the use of members of the International Ladies Garment Workers Union to install knitting machinery.

Details of the agreement were not disclosed.

The million-dollar mill will replace one that burned last January.

Fatal Collision

GREAT BARRINGTON, Mass. (AP)—Allen Mercer, 25-year-old father of three from Lee, was killed Tuesday night when his car and a tractor-trailer truck collided on Route 7.

Charles Stiffler of Hudson, N.Y., the truck driver, was not injured.

$69.88 for Peaches

SPARTANBURG, S.C. (AP) — A. D. Cudd, a businessman who's in Anchorage, Alaska, developed a craving for some home-grown peaches. So he telephoned Paul Black, a grower, Tuesday and asked him to ship a bushel.

The peaches left by air express a few hours later. Shipping charges amounted to $69.88.

'Take Him to Church'

MONTREAT, N.C. (AP)—Evangelist Billy Grham thinks it may be difficult to impress Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev when the Russian leader visits this country.

But Graham offered one suggestion Tuesday. He said President Eisenhower should take Khrushchev to church with him. Graham said the Khrushchev visit will give Americans a chance to show off their religion.

The Irish Easter rebellion in 1916 began when a German submarine landed Sir Roger Casement, the Irish leader, on the Irish coast.

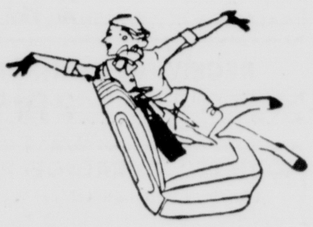
Why We Say--

EXACTING TRIBUTE: This expression started in the Ninth century when Ireland was under conquest by Norsemen and Danes. The Irish were compelled to pay tribute or suffer a slit nose.

WHY DO WITHOUT A LITTLE LUXURY LIKE THIS...

Chevy's the only car of the leading low-priced three that gives you the convenience of crank-operated vent windows. No awkward latches to fumble with . . . your knuckles and fingernails will appreciate it.

LET ALONE THESE BIG CHEVY VIRTUES!



greater roominess

Automobile Manufacturers Association records carry the facts on this. In a Chevy sedan, for example, you've got more front seat head room than all but one of the high-priced cars! And Chevy's front seat hip room spreads up to 5.9 inches wider than comparable cars.

bigger brakes

Bigger, yes, and built with bonded linings for as much as 66% longer life. And how's this for proof that Chevy's a real stopper: in a NASCAR*-conducted test of repeated stops from highway speeds, Chevrolet outstopped both of the "other two" time after time.

*National Association for Stock Car Advancement and Research full coil ride

You're the expert on ride, so you'll want to try Chevy's easygoing smoothness for yourself. MOTOR TREND magazine can give you a hint of what you're in for: ". . . the smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class." And Full Coil springs, of course, never squeak, never need grease.

fresh styling

POPULAR SCIENCE magazine gave Chevy's styling a thoughtful look, then said it this way: "In its price class, Chevy establishes a new high in daring styling . . ." You'll find your own happy way of saying that Chevy's the only unmistakably modern car in its class.

bigger savings

Here's solid proof that Chevrolet squeezes more miles out of a gallon: In the famous Mobilgas Economy Run, two Chevrolet sixes with Powerglide took the first two places in their class, averaging 22.38 miles per gallon. And that, friends, won top honors for Chevy from every full-sized car!

award-winning engines

The NASCAR Outstanding Achievement award goes to Chevrolet! Chevy wins for "the creation and continuing development of America's most efficient V-type engines . . . for the establishment of new levels of V8 compactness combined with outstanding smoothness." And you can choose among eight V8's and the Six that won the Mobilgas Economy Run for its class.

matter of FACT

The scent of plants, particularly flowers, is caused by oils, called essential oils. They are the essence which gives the odor. Perfumes and flavors are made from the oils and very large quantities of plants are required to make a small amount of the oil. Nearly 500,000 roses are needed to obtain a pound of rose oil. Some oils can be manufactured from cheap materials so it is no longer necessary to get them from plants.

THEY'LL BE IN '60 CARS—Some 50,000 auto frames in stacks cover several acres of the Ford Motor Company's Rouge plant near Detroit. Company officials said the frames were not stockpiled against the steel strike, but had been processed in preparation for 1960 model changeover.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — M/Sgt. Robert W. Britton, an Air Force recruiter, is waiting to see if any members of the Ohio Senate drop in to enlist. Chosen "serviceman of the month" by the Community Relations Council, the sergeant toured the Statehouse, met the governor, and made a brief talk before the Senate on the value of a military career. He received a standing ovation.

Chinook was used verbally in the Pacific Northwest for a century. It is a combination of English, French and Indian languages.

Does Wife Rate High In This Little Test?

Is your wife one of your most reliable assets? She undoubtedly is if:

She has the knack of turning a house into a comfortable home and knows how to make you feel like its head.

She is a good mother who loves her children but doesn't expect you to play second fiddle to them.

She is interested in your work and is obviously proud of what you have accomplished and what you aim to accomplish.

She has a good disposition and is easy to live with.

She has the warmth and graciousness and liking for people that have brought you many friends as a couple.

She doesn't regard your outside interests as silly, or a waste of time simply because she does not share them.

She hasn't "let herself go" so that you are as proud of her now as you were the day you married her.

She has a sense of humor that lightens the trials and tribulations of everyday living.

She has interests of her own that keep her busy and happy and make her a more enjoyable companion.

She shares some of your interests and leisure time activities.

She gets along with your family and seems to be genuinely fond of your parents.

She is a good manager, making the money you earn go as far as possible in providing the things that are most important to the family.

She is not easily discouraged and can be counted on to carry her part of the load.

Offspring — Say, dad, how about going to a prizefight with me tonight.

Offspring — Good. I'll guarantee that you'll see more fighting there tonight for your two dollars than you have seen all your life.

Pater — Watch those broad statements, son. Remember, my marriage license cost only two dollars.

In a Washington school a teacher was reviewing the story of the British attack on our national capital in the War of 1812.

It's sad, and hard to explain, why America, which loves its children and counts on them for the future, spends a smaller proportion of its income on public education than other poorer, "backward nations."

Scholarships Are Made Available For N.Y. Veterans

"The series of Regents Scholarships for Medicine and Dentistry will be of interest to many veterans residing in New York State," said Charles L. Culver, counselor of the New York State Division of Veterans Affairs and John B. Tyler, director of the Ulster County Veterans Service Agency. "While one of the requirements for eligibility is attendance at an approved college for at least one semester during the 1958-1959 college year," they continued, "this requirement will be waived for candidates in military service during that period."

These scholarships, one hundred in all, range in value from $350 to $1,000 a year for four years depending on the financial ability of the applicant. To be eligible, a candidate must have completed prior to the effective date of the award a pre-professional program in medicine or dentistry in an approved college, but must not have matriculated for professional study in a medical or dental college.

Applications for the scholarship examination must be filed by October 6, 1959. "For that reason," said the veterans officials, "Empire State veterans who are interested should get in touch immediately with the State Division of Veterans Affairs and the Ulster County Veterans Service Agency at 32 Main Street, Kingston, for complete information on eligibility requirements and application forms."

One Local Tavern Gets Suspension

The State Liquor Authority today announced disciplinary action against 25 licensees for violations of the Alcohol Beverage Control Law, including one Kingston establishment and two in Dutchess County.

The restaurant liquor license issued to Ignatius F. Prusack, 41 East Strand Street, Kingston, will be suspended for 10 days beginning August 10 and continuing until August 20. The violation, sale of alcoholic beverages to an intoxicated person. There was no contest.

A restaurant liquor license held by Walter and Helen Wasnikowski, Route 82, Hopewell Junction, will be suspended for 25 days beginning August 10 and continuing until September 4. The violation, sale of alcoholic beverages to minors. The action was not contested.

The SLA suspended a restaurant liquor license issued to Steve J. Tabor, Violet Avenue, Hyde Park, for a period of 15 days beginning August 10 and continuing to August 25. The violation, sale of alcoholic beverages to minors. There was no contest.

Victim of Bronchitis, Not His Head Injuries

TORONTO (AP)—Norman Alles, 49, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., who died in a Toronto hospital Tuesday, was the victim of acute bronchitis and pneumonia and not of head injuries received in an Ayton, Ont., street fight July 23, a coroner's report says.

Alles was visiting his brother, Albert, 47, in Ayton, near Owen Sound, when they became involved in a dispute with two local men in a hotel.

The dispute moved to the street outside and Alles was knocked to the sidewalk. He was taken to Hanover Hospital and transferred here two days later. An autopsy was held Tuesday night.

Two Cars Sideswipe

Two cars sideswiped each other late Tuesday night on Route 209 in the hamlet of Napanoch but no one was injured. Trooper M. J. Mahoney of the Ellenville state police said cars operated by Anne Saltzman, 27, of Laurelton, and Patrick McEvoy, 63, of Sayville, L. I., were involved. The Saltzman vehicle was proceeding north and the McEvoy car south.

Babe Ruth earned $80,000 in 1930, at the time the highest salary ever paid to a baseball player.

Part to Newcomer

NEW YORK (AP) — A long search for an actor to portray New York City's famous Mayor Fiorello LaGuardia has ended with selection of Tom Bosley. The part is the 31-year-old Chicagoan's first Broadway assignment. Bosley was signed, after three auditions pitted him against a number of established performers, for the musical comedy "Fiorello!" due here in November.

Women in Japan voted for the first time on April 10, 1946.

Faint Heart Never Did Win

BY OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

Once East stuck in his nonvulnerable diamond overcall North and South had no chance to buy the hand for four spades. West had too much distribution.

Also, West felt that even a slam was possible for his side once East raised his heart bid. Therefore, when South jumped to four spades West decided a club cue bid was in order.

North might have gone right into the doubling business and if he had done so he would have picked up 100 points but North hated to give up a vulnerable game and he also thought he might get East and West one higher.

East wanted no part of any further defense and besides he thought he might have a good chance to beat five spades assuming his partner's cue bid had been honest so East doubled.

East was right. He won the opening diamond lead and gave his partner a club ruff whereupon the ace of hearts set the hand.

Ike Takes Credit for Khrushchev Visit

Journey to Russia May Not Bring Nixon Any Advantage in '60 Race

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — There's scant political mileage for Vice President Richard M. Nixon in the Eisenhower - Khrushchev exchange of visits unless his part in bringing them about was bigger than President Eisenhower has revealed so far.

He had nothing to do with them, judging from what Eisenhower says.

Some political commentators see in Nixon's Soviet-Polish visits —particularly since he handled himself so well both places—a big boon to his ambitions for the Republican presidential nomination in 1960.

There's another view: that public recollection of Nixon's overseas journeys will be dim and lost in later events by the time of the 1960 conventions unless he accomplished something sensationally memorable in the Soviet Union.

So far as is known, he didn't.

The only sensational event while he was overseas was the news that Eisenhower and Khrushchev would visit each other. It would have added immensely to Nixon's prestige if his followers could claim he had a key role in arranging it.

There had been wide speculation —before and during Nixon's Soviet trip—that he might try to crown his Moscow visit by bringing about a meeting of the two leaders.

But Eisenhower himself undercut such an idea—although saying Nixon had acted "splendidly"—by publicly stating his role, and minimizing Nixon's, in arranging for the visits.

The President, at the very start of his Monday news conference announcement about the exchange of visits, said he was the one who had initiated the correspondence and agreements on them. He said he had started the ball rolling early in July.

But he disclosed he hadn't mentioned this to Nixon until the day, or day before, the vice president set out for Moscow. That was July 22.

Nixon, at his own news conference in Moscow Sunday, said "on balance, I believe that at some time Mr. Khrushchev should be invited. . .to the United States."

The next day—during the President's announcement Khrushchev would come — Eisenhower was asked by a reporter if the vice president had acted with or without his permission in suggesting in Moscow the Premier should come here.

Eisenhower seemed to brush aside the Nixon suggestion as of no importance. The President re- to it as an "offhand" remark.

...id the only ban he put on Nixon before he left was not to bring up in Moscow the subject of a Khrushchev visit unless the Russians mentioned it. Apparently, they did.

...ent gave no explana- ... waiting until just before Nixon left for Moscow to tell him the extremely important fact that Eisenhower was trying to arrange a meeting with Khrushchev.

He did explain why he finally told Nixon: "So that you will not be astonished or surprised and feel let down by your government" if the Russians started talking about the negotiations for Khrushchev's visit.

This could be interpreted as meaning the President attached so little importance to anything Nixon might do that the only reason he mentioned it to him was to save him from the embarrassment of being ignorant of the whole business if the Russians mentioned it.

NEW YORK (AP)—Mortimer Halpern is setting a theatrical precedent as both stage manager of "Song of Norway" and Equity representative of the acting company. Halpern is the first to be chosen under the ruling.

The Smell Remaineth

PHOENIX (AP) — The Jack Cast family was relaxing in front of the television set when son Andy, 4, walked in carrying a small, furry animal. Andy said to his Dad, "Look, I found a kitty." "That's no cat, it's a skunk. Drop it," the father said nervously. Andy dropped the skunk. The frightened animal sprayed the house. The family fled outdoors. The odor remained.

Sentenced to Life For Prosecutor Death

JERSEY CITY, N. J. (AP) — Richard Biegenwald, 18, has been sentenced to spend the rest of his life in prison for the murder of a Bayonne City prosecutor.

Another youth, James R. Sparnroft, 18, of Mariners Harbor, N. Y., was sentenced to 25 to 30 years in state prison in the shooting.

They had pleaded no defense in Hudson County Court.

Biegenwald and Sparnroft were charged with murder in the fatal shooting of Prosecutor Stephen F. Sladowski. Sladowski was killed by a shotgun during a holdup attempt at his grocery store in Bayonne last Dec. 18.

Biegenwald, of West Brighton, N. Y., was charged with firing the actual shot that killed Sladowski.

UNITING STATES OF EUROPE—Two years ago, six European nations (shown in black on Newsmap above) signed a treaty forming the European Economic Community (EEC). Object was to create a free trade area and common market by the gradual lowering of tariffs and other barriers over the next 15 years. They are part of the broader 17-nation Organization for European Economic Co-operation (OEEC), which was set up after World War II to plan for and use Marshal Plan aid. Now seven OEEC countries outside the common market are moving to establish their own free trade area. They have been dubbed the "Outer Seven" (see map). Eventual goal of these plans is the complete economic unification of all Europe.

The Mature Parent

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

Children Have to Learn To Take Teasing, Ridicule

There had been a big family dinner to honor the homecoming of Bobby's Uncle Fred. As Grandma and Bobby's mother were clearing the table, Uncle Fred came into the dining room, put his arm around Bobby's mother and kissed her hard.

Resenting the stranger's familiarity with a person who belonged to him, Bobby ran to his mother and tried to push Uncle Fred away. But instead of releasing her, Uncle Fred hugged her harder and said, "You think she's your mother, don't you? Well, you're wrong, kid. She's my sister."

Nobody objected to this terrifying statement. Grandma was smiling at Bobby's look of consternation. So was his mother. So to avoid their amusement, Bobby ran out of the room. Two nights later, however, a nightmare awoke him from sleep.

There is always hostility behind teasing.

That is why children don't like it.

The cult of "good sportsmanship" forces us to pretend we don't mind it. Taking teasing with good grace is supposed to be proof of our ability to laugh at ourselves.

But when we laugh with genuine amusement at our own foibles, we laugh because we want to and not because other people require us to. This is honest, releasing laughter. When we laugh at ourselves to prove that we're "good sports," we laugh out of fear, not out of humor.

Children can't play our "good sport" game. When a teaser uses frivolity to disguise his wish to hurt, they know what the teaser is up to. And like Bobby, children ignore the harmless appearance of the teaser's ridicule to respond directly to the hostility behind it. They try to push the teaser away or kick him in the shins.

Though we can't allow Bobby to kick Uncle Fred in the shins, we are most mistaken to laugh at his resentment.

If we want to let people ridicule us out of what we feel, that's our business. Grownups have many devices by which they avoid feelings that might expose them to others' disapproval. But because we want to be regarded as "good sports" is no reason to try to turn Bobby into one.

Not yet anyway. He needs a little more time to learn how to falsify himself and take ridicule with the strained laugh of the "good sport."

Marriage Breaks, Student Shoots Self at Altar

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — A student, despondent over the break-up of his six-week-old marriage, shot himself to death at the foot of the altar in a Roman Catholic church, police say.

The body of Gerrit Albert Veeder, 26, of Geneseo, N. Y., a graduate student at the University of Michigan, was found Tuesday by the caretaker at St. Thomas the Apostle Church.

A bullet wound was in his head, a .22 caliber rifle nearby. Several envelopes containing typewritten notes were beneath the body.

One of the notes was to Veeder's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Veeder of Geneseo. Police said it expressed love and affection and asked forgiveness.

Another was addressed to the former Barbara Gibson of Brighton, Mich., whom Veeder married June 20th. The note to the estranged bride said, "You'll hate me for this, but if you don't love me I can't live without you," police said.

Detectives were puzzled that Veeder was in a Catholic church. The family said he was a Presbyterian. In his pockets, police found an Episcopal prayer book and a New Testament.

Police said he had apparently entered the church Monday night.

County Bureau Plans Meetings To List Events

Officers of the Ulster County Farm Bureau have announced that plans are under way for district meetings to be held early this month, and also for several county committee sessions to be held at the same time in an effort to provide more program coordination.

District 10 will meet in the New Paltz municipal building at New Paltz, Monday, August 10, at 8 p. m. Separate meetings will be held for executive, membership, kitchen konference and policy development committees after a brief opening session together.

Robert Davenport, chairman of the membership committee for 1959-1960, will be assisted by, Severyn Hasbrouck, Hurley; Charles Denkensohn, Accord; Myron Boice Jr., Kingston; Roderick Dressel, New Paltz; Anthony Moriello, New Paltz; Alfred Zimmerman, Clintondale; and John Pizzo, Milton.

William Walker, Clintondale, is chairman of the Kitchen Konference committee. His assistants are Frank Tantillo, Gardiner; Richard Schoonmaker, New Hurley; Gerald DeWitt, Accord; Eugene Coy, Ardonia; Jack Hepworth, Milton; Robert Coy, Ardonia; Gerow Wilkin, New Hurley; Merton Depuy, New Paltz; and Robert Kelder, Stone Ridge.

Present officers of the Ulster County Farm Bureau are Philip Davis, Kerhonkson, president; Roderick Dressel, New Paltz, vice president; and Mrs. Frank G. Elliott, New Paltz, secretary and treasurer.

Members of various committees are urged by the officers to attend the August 10 meeting.

Pupils to Attend Fair Without Fee

Commissioner Don J. Wickham of the New York State Department of Agriculture and Markets has informed Saugerties Central School officials that pupils of the kindergarten through grade 12 will be admitted without charge to the State fair at Syracuse Friday, September 4, and Saturday, September 5.

Those who will be admitted without charge will include seniors who were graduated in June and school children attending the kindergarten through grade 12 will be admitted free afternoon and evening of the two days.

Commissioner Wickham said there will be no printing or distribution of tickets for the occasion. All that is required is that the children present themselves on the dates indicated at the entrance gates to the State fair grounds. This will eliminate not only the cost of printing the tickets but also the necessity of distributing them in the schools.

Saugerties schools will not open for admission of pupils until Wednesday, September 9. Faculty members will begin their formal meetings at Saugerties on September 3 and 4.

Two Hurt When Car Overturns

Two persons were admitted to Veterans Memorial Hospital, Ellenville, Tuesday night after the car in which they were riding skidded on wet pavement and overturned.

Marcella Franklin, 30, of Lakeview, L. I., driver of the car, suffered lacerations of the head and lips.

A passenger, Margaret Frames, 30, of Pittsburgh, Pa., was also treated. Her injuries were not listed.

They were taken to the hospital by the Ellenville First Aid and Rescue Squad.

Trooper M. J. Mahoney of the Ellenville state police said the car was proceeding east on the Samsonville road about four miles west of Route 209 at the time of the mishap. The driver was negotiating a left curve when she applied her brakes. The car skidded on wet pavement, went off the south shoulder and overturned in a field.

Exploration of a sunken pirate city in Jamaica, West Indies, is being undertaken by underwater cameras. The city is said to have been covered by the ocean in an earthquake in 1692.

Tires and Wheels Taken From Trucks

Theft of wheels and tires from the Anderson Garage, Accord, Sunday or Monday, is under investigation by Ellenville state police.

Trooper Fred Cooper reported that two tires and their rims were taken from trucks parked in the garage lot.

They were spare tires held to the side of the trucks by braces.

One of the tires is a Firestone tubeless, the other a U. S. Royal. Both are 670-15.

Jewish Congress Sees Legislative Progress

NEW YORK (AP)—The American Jewish Congress says a survey of civil rights laws passed in 1958-59 shows state legislatures are moving steadily to wipe out racial and religious discrimination.

The congress said Tuesday that 24 laws dealing with discrimination were passed last year in 14 states.

The survey showed:

Sixteen states now have enforceable fair employment laws.

Four states now have laws against discrimination in the general housing market. (Previously laws affected only housing in which public funds were involved.)

Twenty-four states have outlawed discrimination in places open to the public.

Three states have repealed bans on marriages between whites and non-whites.

Speeders Fined

Two motorists pleaded guilty to charges of speeding Tuesday night before City Judge Aaron E. Klein and each paid a $15 fine. They were Henry Backer, 72, retired, RFD Box 119, Kingston, and James J. Mowell, 25, Box 42, Esopus.

Aged, But Hardy

IRVINGTON, N. J. (AP)—Frank J. Flood didn't celebrate his 80th birthday in a rocking chair. He was on the road selling appliances for a local firm, where he's respected as a salesman of great persistence. Flood visits his doctor twice a year and has missed but eight days in his 29 years wth the company—all for minor colds.

WAS NOTE OF THANKS NECESSARY?

Dear Mrs. Post: Our son was married recently and my husband and I gave his bride-to-be, on the eve of their wedding and in the presence of them both, a sizable check for which we never received a thank-you note. My question is, shouldn't the bride have sent us a note of thanks for our present? When I approached her about this, she said she thought we would be "insulted" to receive such a note from her now that she is a member of the family, and that a thank-you note was not in order. I have gone along with her excuse rather than make an issue of it, but I still feel that she should have written us a note of thanks. Will you please give me your opinion?

Answer: Since your daughter-in-law surely thanked you in person when you handed her the check, a thank-you note was certainly not necessary.

Folding Napkins After Dinner

Dear Mrs. Post: I had five for dinner at my house and served quite formally. After dinner I noticed that two of my guests folded their napkins in their original creases. According to my knowledge and what I have been doing all of my fifty years, I thought just crushing it together loosely and placing it on the table was proper. Will you please tell me what is really correct? My friends claim that when it is folded it means that you were satisfied and hope to be invited again.

Answer: I can't imagine where your friends got their idea about the meaning of folding a napkin, and I can assure you that I have never heard of it. You are right in believing that the napkin should be placed unfolded on the table.

Money Gifts For Children

Dear Mrs. Post: For the past several years I have always given certain children money on their birthdays, and they all love it. The parents of these children are people of means. My son-in-law now tells me that it is very improper to give money. Am I wrong?

Answer: If you restrict your money gifts to children in your own family no one can criticize you, but your son-in-law is right when it comes to children not related to you.

Mrs. Post offers readers leaflets on a variety of subjects concerning etiquette. If you would like to have her leaflet E-32, entitled, "Table Linen," send 10 cents in coin to Dept. EP, care of The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail.

Of Many Things

Flowers Afloat

Reading recently about the various types of flower shows given in the Netherlands, it occurred to me that perhaps some of this information should be passed on, particularly for flower lovers in this area.

If it is true that flowers bring happiness, then Holland is surely the happiest country in the world. Its flower industry is of vast economic importance. This is doubly surprising because we learn that Holland has an abundance of wind and rain but that doesn't seem to matter. Hollanders love flowers; but also, flowers love Holland, that foggy, wind-swept little tidewater area off the North Sea.

This blend of emotional and commercial interest in flowers has brought about a very colorful and fascinating tradition in The Netherlands. In keeping with it, a number of towns and villages hold their annual flower pageants in the spring or in summer. Some of these "corsos"—as they are called by courtesy of the Italian language—are of such dazzling beauty and originality that their fame has spread far beyond the shores and borders of the country.

In springtime there are many events to celebrate their colorful glory, as millions of foreign visitors can attest. But there is only one "corso" each year. This first of the big mobile flower shows takes place on the first Saturday of April. Winding its way through the "tulip towns" of Sassenheim, Lisse and Hillegom and back, it blazes a trail of color through Holland's bulb district between Haarlem and Leyden. This year's spring corso was held for the 12th time, its main features were hyacinths, tulips and daffodils.

August Shows

The summer shows are given a send-off on the first Saturday in August with a pageant that has been held annually sine 1954. This one makes a streak of color between the flower village of Rijnsburg and the University town of Leyden, and like most other summer shows, the floats and cars are decorated with carnations, chrystanthemums, dahlias, gladioli, lilies, roses and other beauties of the summer pick. The chief attraction of this corso is that the return trip is made in the evening, with all the show pieces illuminated. The effect is really out of this world, I'm told.

September Secrets

Perhaps one of the most popular and most interesting shows takes place on the first Sunday in September. It is the Zundert Corso. Zundert is a little horticultural community near Breda, close to the Belgian border. It has the added distinction of being the birthplace of Van Gogh.

Unlike all other pageants, the Zundert is entirely non-commercial. It is given for the sheer fun of it. Here, the floats are not decorated publicly or jointly, they are made by individual citizens and, what's more, in dead secret under cover of huge canvas screens.

There's also a difference in appearance. Whereas all the other corsos are decorated with huge bunches of flowers, stems, leaves and all, the Zundert floral floats are made exclusively of blooms. They are used—thousands and thousands of them — to form large planes and shapes of color and design. Another interesting feature is that only dahlias are used, grown especially for the occasion in the backyards of the Zundert people themselves.

Months of Planning

Building this kind of float demands months of planning ahead, and a couple of days of feverish activity. For the blooms must be picked and worked when the dahlias are at their prettiest; and they would fade if this were done too long in advance. But it's well worth the trouble!

Gigantic pre-historic monsters, prancing horses, flying fish, swans on a mirror lake, Martians and Venusians are some of the sights to behold on that first Sunday in September. In fact, anything under, and even including the sun may sprout out of the imaginative brains of the Zunderters.

Some of the floats contain 50,000 blooms or more, covering a framework of anything between 5-6,000 feet of steel wiring, 3,000 feet of binding material and 100 square yards of straw matting.

If you feel like checking up on this, don't try it in Zundert on the day before the big event; you'd risk being run out of town, tared and flowered! The entries are jealously guarded secrets until the very hour of the show.

You'd be far safer on the following Monday!

The First Sweaters of Autumn

When autumn comes, the American girl is quick to look for additions to her sweater wardrobe. Here are two in the best American tradition. Classic cardigan by Darlene (left) is done in mixture of wool-and-mohair frosted over with white for a misty look. Pullover (right) from this same house takes its styling from a polo shirt. We show it in violet mist. — By GAILE DUGAS NEA Women's Editor.

Golden on Broadway

NEW YORK (AP) — Harry Golden's new book "For 2c Plain" is to be transformed into a Broadway musical by Meredith Willson, composer, and the writing team of Jerome Lawrence and Robert E. Lee. The title of the volume of reminiscences about boyhood on New York's lower East Side, refers to the days when 2 cents bought a plain drink at a soda fountain.

Woodstock Play Gives Rise to Mixed Feelings at Opening on Tuesday Night

ELIZABETH PERRY

EDWIN SHERIN

It isn't at all difficult to understand how John Osborne's play "Look Back in Anger" could cause heated reactions for that is exactly what it did last night. The author must certainly be a very angry man—angry at the world, at life, at himself—for how else could he have written such sharp, biting, caustic, at times downright revolting dialogue.

The plot, in short, concerns a young man who feels the world has cheated him. It's the old story of the "have and have not" teamed with a lot of neuroses (and all Osborne's characters are filled with them!) a little philosophy about the plight of today's youth, and love—all kinds.

If you want to see a play which just oozes with passion, hate, frustrations—"Look Back in Anger" would be it!!

Brilliant Acting

Without a doubt, the cast handled itself superbly. Edwin Sherin, as the lead, succeeded brilliantly in making himself absolutely obnoxious. His type of diologue would give any actor a headache, and in my opinion, Sherin did a beautiful job.

Taking the part of the well-bred wife, struggling to maintain a fine balance of sanity amid all the ravings of her husband, is Elizabeth Perry. Miss Perry exhibited a fine acting talent in last night's pperformance which, no doubt, must have left her exhausted at its conclusion.

Also appearing in Osborne's study of human nature tossed about in a chaotic world are Wayne Maxwell as the lovable "ordinary" guy and neighbor; Sally Jessup as a mixed-up spinster; and Frederick Young, the wife's father whose purpose in life was left behind with his regiment in India.

My objection is not at all with the play itself, but with the message its author is trying to convey. If this is really the way our "crazy mixed-up kids" are feeling, then the psychiatrist's couch is in for a peak round of business.

I strongly urge everyone to see this play—it really is worth it — and I guarantee it will arouse you—for or against it.

Acting Backgrounds

Elizabeth Perry, is a winner of the Mary MacArthur Award presented by Helen Hayes and Charles MacArthur in memory of their daughter. She has played Polly Peachum in the long-running "Three Penny Opera" and appeared in "Inherit the Wind" with Paul Muni on Broadway and then by its tour with Ed Begley. Recently Elizabeth was seen as the fifth wife of Henry VIII in the highly praised "Royal Bambit." She has appeared on all the major TV and radio networks.

Edwin Sherin made his first professional appearance in Lillian Hellman's "The Little Foxes" shortly after his graduation from Brown University. As a member of Joseph Papp's New York Shakes-Festival Company, he appeared as Octavius Caesar in "Anthony and Cleopatra," Malcolm in "Macbeth," Touchstone in "As You Like It," Cassio in "Othello" and Tybalt in "Romeo and Juliet."

Mr. Sherin's Broadway credits include "Miss Lonelyhearts" and "Desert Incident." He was most recently seen in Alfred Drake's production "Dr. Willy Nilly" and appeared previously off-Broadway in "Night of the Auk." He has played over 30 TV roles, notably the prize winning "Life of Samuel Johnson."

Sets Are Good

Jack Blackman is doing excellent work on the sets this season. In concentrating on last week's "Romanoff and Juliet" we neglected to mention that Blackman succeeded in making the only revolving stage sets for that play ever to be seen in the area. In last night's production, he again outdid himself. One look at the sets, and you couldn't help but feel the despair such poor surroundings could breed. Blackman is indeed an artist.

I would also say that Woodstock Playhouse actors are fortunate in working with M. David Samples. The productions this year are evidence of his fine directing.

Next Week

Eugene O'Neill's "Moon for the Misbegotten" will be presented next week. It will have its share of humor and comedy, biting laughs and touching scenes. . . .D.A.N.

Vellake Is Accused Of Unlawful Intrusion

Benso Angelo Vellake, 20, a taxi driver, of 610 Delaware Avenue, Kingston, today pleaded innocent before City Judge Aaron E. Klein to a charge of disorderly conduct and the case was adjourned until Saturday. Bail was fixed at $100.

Vellake was arrested early today when police investigated a complaint that someone was ransacking automobiles parked at the rear of Kingston Hospital. Judge Klein said Vellake was specifically accused of unlawful intrusion on real property.

Nixon and Kennedy Are Leading Candidates

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. William Proxmire (D-Wis) said today a poll he conducted in Wisconsin showed Vice President Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) well ahead of other potential 1960 presidential candidates.

The questionnaire was sent to 10,000 Wisconsin residents, selected geographically to represent each of the 17 counties in proportion to population and similarly between urban and rural residents.

Proxmire said in a statement that Republican responses favored Nixon by 82.1 per cent to 17.9 per cent for Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York.

Braves and Saugerties Slate Saturday Clash at Stadium

SPORTS

By CHARLES J. TIANO

Freeman Sports Editor

This has been a great week for city baseball, with emphasis on junior achievements and a public tribute upcoming for the Kingston Braves Saturday night at Dietz Stadium.

Certainly the accomplishments of the Kingston National Little League All Stars in capturing the District 16 title and the advance of the Babe Ruth League All Stars to the New York State finals at Amsterdam were tremendous tributes to the quality of small fry baseball in the area.

The Nationals travel to Schenectady for the state Little League sectionals Friday, further spreading the gospel of Kingston baseball. The Babe Ruth trek to the state finals was marked by brilliant team playing, superb pitching and individual batting exploits worthy of major leaguers. But for a couple of bad breaks, Kingston and Johnstown might still be locked in a scoreless duel.

These teams have brought recognition and fame to the city and we join with all sports-minded folks in congratulating the players, officials, coaches and managers who pooled their efforts in these championship performances.

It wasn't a particularly good season for the American Legion Juniors, but let us not overlook their brilliant record over the years. It is within the realm of possibility that a year from now Kingston will have the American Legion, Babe Ruth and Little League champions in the state.

• Flotsam and Jetsam:

That's an old rivalry coming to a second climax Saturday night as local businessmen salute Fred Davi and his New York-New Jersey League Braves with a Community Night. Saugerties against Kingston is a rivalry as old as baseball itself in this part of the country as grandfather can tell you. . . . All the elements for a slambang ball game are there. The valiant Dutchmen are the only team in the circuit to defeat Kingston on the field. The other loss in nine games was via the forfeit route in that now historic mixup in which Kingston players went to Nyack for a contest scheduled at Congers. Although his various editions of NY-NJ representatives (Colonials, Yankees, now Braves) have had long term leases on the netherlands of the league, Davi's clubs have enjoyed uncanny success against superior Saugerties squads, having whipped them six times in eight games. And they're thirsting for revenge Saturday night. Let's all pitch in and make this a generous tribute to a fine ball club.

• A Brilliant Duel:

If you drive past the Forsyth Park tennis courts any evening around 6 o'clock, you can get a glimpse of the resurgence of interest in the sport. And the tennis devotees are still raving about the brilliant city championship finals between Marty Kaye, the champion, and Ed Mills, the sturdy challenger. George Baron, who has won a few titles himself, gave us an excellent word picture of the tremendous battle between Kaye and Mills. In setting up the dramatic third set in which Kaye rallied from a 2-5 deficit to win 8-6, Baron pointed out that Mills won the first set with comparative ease. Kaye had broken his favorite racquet during the warmup period while volleying with Mills and played with a racquet that was not to his liking. Kaye replaced his racquet and with it his style of play at the start of the second set. He began to hit with more assurance and less hesitancy, whereas Mills appeared to let down (a dangerous tendency when you are ahead). Kaye took the second set, 6-2, with almost the same ease with which Mills won the first. He was getting depth and pace on his forehand and was also coming to the net with greater frequency to cut off Mills' returns with drop shots or placements. Mills stroking suddenly turned cautious and he was not hitting away with the relaxed power he showed in the first set. The third set, well, this was truly one of the finest ever played in Kingston. For Kaye it was a brilliant victory. In defeat, Mills established himself as the Bill Tilden of the field. Whoever wins the future will have to get by him first.

12 Baseballs To Be Awarded To Small Fry

Everything will be awarded but the kitchen sink Saturday at Dietz Stadium as the City of Kingston celebrates "Baseball Night." Prizes will be awarded before and after the game and even the kids will not be forgotten. To make the evening even more attractive, the contest will be between two New York - New Jersey Baseball League rivals, the Kingston Braves and the Saugerties Dutchmen.

Boys and girls, under 15 years of age, will be admitted free, if they are accompanied by an adult. In addition, they will receive free ice cream and will have a chance to win one of twelve baseballs, autographed by the Milwaukee Braves, 1958 National League champions.

The feature of the night will be the awarding of a portable television set to the lucky adult ticket holder. The set is being donated by the Uptown Merchants Association.

The players will not be neglected either. There will be three special awards for the player hitting for the most total bases, the one who in the opinion of the committee is the Most Valuable Player during the game and one for the pitcher, if any, who hurls a shutout.

Natural Attraction

The game itself is a natural. The Dutchmen dealt a serious blow to Kingston several weeks ago with an upset victory. To add salt to the wounds, Jack Houghtaling, a Kingston resident, was the winning pitcher in relief. Since victories for the Dutchmen against the Braves are far and few between, this one made Bill Straub and company quite elated.

Bob Maines, the southpaw whiz, is expected to start Saturday's game. He has a 5-0 mark in circuit play so far this season. His last effort at Spring Valley was a sharp one. Bob didn't hurl the first affair at Saugerties. He played the outfield.

Manager Straub will probably toss John Mustion, the Syracuse University star, against the Braves. Big John has been in several low scoring games this season. He lost a 5-1 decision at Poughkeepsie recently, but was strong in the clutch. If Mustion doesn't get the nod, Glenn Santmire, who has been hampered by control trouble, may start. At any rate, the former Roosevelt star will be in the lineup. He swings a big bat.

The standings:

Team	W	L
Poughkeepsie	7	1
Kingston	7	2
Saugerties	5	3
Jersey City	3	4
Spring Valley	4	5
Beacon	3	5
Nyack	3	6

BASEBALL PROCLAMATION—Mayor Edwin F. Radel, seated, signs proclamation officially designating Saturday, Aug. 8, as Kingston Community Baseball Night for the New York-New Jersey League contest between the Kingston Braves and Saugerties Dutchmen at Dietz Stadium. Braves Now First In National Loop As Dodgers Lose

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer

Warren Spahn has led the Milwaukee Braves back into the National League lead with a brilliant three-hitter against the San Francisco Giants Tuesday night.

The 38-year-old left-hander who has won 261 games, only five short of Eppa Rixey's all-time high for a National League southpaw, allowed only one hit in the first 7 2-3 innings. That was a single by Willie McCovey with two gone in the first. He walked Willie Mays in the fourth but not another Giant reached base until the eighth.

Jim Hegan's two-out single broke the spell and the Giants broke the shutout with two walks and Willie Kirkland's double in the last of the ninth.

The 6-1 Milwaukee victory put the Braves on top by .001 over the Giants with Los Angeles, a 4-1 loser to Cincinnati, another half game behind.

It was the first time Fred Haney's defending champions had held first place since July 8, just after the first All-Star game break and shortly before their disastrous seven-game losing slump. Except for one day, July 29, when Los Angeles edged ahead by a half game, the Giants had been on top.

Fielding Lapses

Sloppy Giant fielding helped ruin the night for the capacity crowd of 22,959 at Seals Stadium. San Francisco committed five errors, two by losing pitcher Mike McCormick.

Milwaukee, enroute to its 11th victory in its last 13 games, picked up unearned runs in the first and third and landed on McCormick for two more in the fifth. Del Crandall's 13th homer with Billy Bruton on base completed the scoring in the eighth.

While the Braves were winning the opener of this important three-game series, Los Angeles was blowing a chance to take over first place.

Vada Pinson hit a two-run homer and lefty Joe Nuxhall allowed only three hits in beating the Dodgers who led momentarily in the first inning on Wally Moon's ninth home run. Pinson connected for No. 15 over the left field screen during the three-run third. Roy McMillan walked, took third on Nuxhall's double and scored on Johnny Temple's sacrifice fly. Then came Pinson's blow that hung defeat No. 5 on Stan Williams. Jerry Lynch also homered in the eighth off Roger Craig.

Nuxhall was the first left-hander to start against the Dodgers and beat them in their Coliseum this season.

Musial Homers

Pittsburgh's Vern Law subdued St. Louis 7-3 despite home runs by Stan Musial and George Crowe. The Pirates routed loser Bob Gibson in the three-run fifth after scoring three times in the first inning. It was Law's 12th victory and Gibson's first defeat since he was brought up from the Omaha farm club.

Harry Anderson's two-run double provided Robin Roberts with enough runs for Philadelphia's 2-1 margin over Chicago in the only day game. Roberts 10th victory of the season was the 216th of his brilliant career.

Triple, Home Run Help Indians Top Washington, 8-2

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer

With Tito Francona on the warpath there is new hope in the camp of the Cleveland Indians who now trail Chicago by only two games in the American League race.

Francona leads both majors with his .416 batting average but he probably won't have enough at bats to be eligible for the league title. He needs about 255 more appearances at the plate and the Indians have only 49 games to play.

Certainly the deal that brought Francona to Cleveland from Detroit in exchange for Larry Doby last March ranks with one of the best Frank Lane ever made.

Doby finally drifted to Chicago again and was shipped down to San Diego in the Pacific Coast League just the other day.

Francona helped send poor stumbling Washington down to its 17th straight defeat Tuesday night when he drove in four runs in Cleveland's 8-2 victory. The outfielder sparked a four-run surge in the third with his two-run triple and hit his 12th homer in the seventh after Minnie Minoso walked. In the meantime, Jim Perry was throwing a six-hitter to beat Bill Fischer.

Cookie Lavagetto's Senators, who haven't won since they beat Kansas City in the first half of a July 19 doubleheader, can beat the club record for futility if they blow Wednesday's doubleheader. In fact, the American League and modern major league record is only 20, shared by three clubs, the most recent being the 1943 Philadelphia A's. A Washington club lost 18 in a row in 1948.

Turn the Tables

Baltimore gave Chicago a dose of its own one-run medicine. The Orioles came up with two unearned runs in the eighth for a 3-2 decision over the White Sox, who had won 26 of 31 previous one-run games.

Rookie Ken McBride from Indianapolis left in the eighth with the bases loaded and Chicago leading 2-1 on Johnny Romano's two-run pinch homer. Relief man Turk Lown walked in the tying run before Gerry Staley took over. The Orioles scored the clincher when Luis Aparicio couldn't get off a throw after fielding Billy Klaus' grounder. Billy Hoeft was the winner and McBride the loser.

Lary Again

Frank Lary worked his usual magic on the Yankees as Detroit made it 11 out of 15 over New York with a 4-3 decision. Lary now has won five in a row over the Yanks this year and holds a 21-5 lifetime edge. Neil Chrisley, who has only nine hits, slammed his sixth homer for the Tigers and Mickey Mantle hit No. 21 and Elston Howard No. 13 for New York.

Kansas City dropped to fourth place by splitting a twi-nighter at Boston. Pete Runnels drove in three runs in Boston's 4-1 opening victory for Tom Brewer. The A's scored six in the sixth to take the second game 8-6. Eleven men batted in the big inning that ruined Al Schroll and gave Murry Dickson his second victory.

Boy Scouts Drum Corps Heads Grande Parade at Horse Show

The bugle and drum corps of Troop 12, Boy Scouts of America will lead the Grand Parade for the fifth annual horse show sponsored by Ulster Kiwanis Club Sunday at Maple Lane Farm on Albany Avenue Extension. This is the only such group in the Boy Scout movement in the Hudson Valley.

The ring and booth are already in place for the big show which will feature 17 events, including pony, bareback, horsemanship, men's Western stock, junior musical chairs and three-gaited flat saddle. Entry fees have again been held to a minimum in order to broaden the competition.

Joseph McNierney, show superintendent, has announced that entry applications indicate a broader field of horses competing for the coveted Kiwanis trophies, as this show has become known as "the show with the usuable trophies."

The trophies, other than the cash prizes, are on display in the window of the Shanty Store at Fair and North Front Streets in Kingston. A special prize will be awarded at 3 p. m.

In the event of rain Sunday, the show will be postponed until Aug. 23 at the same location.

Monticello Track Increases Purses For Third Time

The third increase of purse values for horsemen competing at Monticello Raceway was announced today by officials at the track.

President Franklin E. Devlin and Racing Secretary James J. Dunnigan Jr. announced the rise across the board in this fashion:

Horses in Class C trots and paces will now vie for $1,100; the B category races will have purses of $1,600 and handicap A overnight events will call for $2,200 in purses.

The third increase is a result of an upward trend in wagering at the upstate New York oval, rapidly becoming one of the larger ones in the nation.

When the campaign opened Devlin pointed out that C prices were $800; B were $1,200 and A were $1,800.

"Today we are paying the highest purses in upstate New York and expect to attract a flock of new and faster horses," he stated.

Liston, Valdes To Fight Tonight

CHICAGO (AP) —Nino Valdes, the giant Cuban, will try to reenter the heavyweight picture tonight by upsetting the third ranked contender, Sonny Liston.

Liston, No. 3 by both the National Boxing Assn. and Ring magazine, is unbeaten in 17 bouts and has lost only once in 25. He is a solid favorite to dipose of the 34-year-old Valdes in the televised (ABC, 9 p.m. EST) 10 rounder in Chicago Stadium.

Valdes, once the top-rated contender, knocked out Dan Hodge in eight rounds last April but a month later lost a 10 round decision to Alonzo Johnson in Madison Square Garden. In 19 years as a pro, Valdes has won 48 of 67 bouts, 35 of them by knockouts.

Liston, 27-year-old resident of Philadelphia, may have trouble with Valdes' best weapon, a left hook to the face or body, but Sonny never has been knocked out. He thinks his right will bomb out the Cuban, who has been kayoed four times.

College Grid Stars Win Practice Tilt

By JOE MOOSHIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

RENSSELAER, Ind. (AP) —The College All-Stars passed their first test against professional competition Tuesday but Coach Otto Graham wasn't satisfied with his squad's performance.

"We still have a lot of work ahead of us," said Graham after his All-Stars had defeated the Chicago Bears 7-6 in an exhibition scrimmage at St. Joseph's College.

"This game will do us a lot of good," said Graham, "but we face a tough club in Baltimore. We were pretty sloppy out there."

The All-Stars, who meet the Baltimore Colts in Chicago's Soldier Field Aug. 14, put on a 99-yard touchdown drive in the final quarter to nip the Bears.

Lee Grosscup of Utah directed the march which ended when he flipped 33 yards to Buddy Dial of Rice for the score. Sam Williams of Michigan State converted the decisive point.

The Bears scored in the second quarter when they blocked an All-Star punt and Bill George picked up the ball and ran 24 yards for the touchdown.

Canadian-American Grid Rules on Trial

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The pro football whirl, climaxed so brilliantly with Baltimore's overtime National Football League championship victory last December, gets started tonight with an offering of a different nature.

The NFL Chicago Cardinals will play the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Big Four Football Union in an exhibition game featuring the rules of both leagues.

This is not the first time NFL and Canadian teams have matched styles of play, but it will offer good comparisons for the rule makers and football style devotees.

When the Cards have the ball, each team will have 11 men on the field a la American style of play. Also the U.S. rule of unlimited interference will be in effect when either team is on the offensive.

The teams will be allowed 12 men when the Argos are on offensive. But the big excitement in Toronto is the unlimited blocking rule, directly opposed to the Canadian rule that says a ball carrier is on his own once he hits the secondary.

Card Coach Frank (Pop) Ivy, who was a successful Canadian professional coach before taking over the Cards last season, may have Tom Catlin, veteran center whom the Cards obtained Tuesday from the Cleveland Browns. They gave up a draft choice for the former Oklahoma star.

Injuries were the talk of some of the other NFL training camps. In Los Angeles' Redland, Calif., camp, halfback Jon Arnett's hand injury will keep him sidelined only two weeks, instead of six to eight as originally feared.

In the Colts camp, veteran linebacker Leo Sanford must undergo surgery for a recurring knee injury.

Halfback Gene Gedman and guard John Gordy will miss the Detroit Lions exhibition game Saturday against the Rams at Boulder, Colo. Gedman has an ailing knee, and Gordy a badly twisted ankle. End Jim Doran's bruised shoulder makes him a doubtful starter.

ANOTHER LINE—The similarity between Joe Louis and his son, nicknamed Punchy, is seen in the caps they wear. The former heavyweight champion is beginning his boy's sports instruction at an early age—but in golf, not the boxing game.

Braves and Saugerties Slate Saturday Clash at Stadium

SPORTS

By CHARLES J. TIANO

Freeman Sports Editor

This has been a great week for city baseball, with emphasis on junior achievements and a public tribute upcoming for the Kingston Braves Saturday night at Dietz Stadium.

Certainly the accomplishments of the Kingston National Little League All Stars in capturing the District 16 title and the advance of the Babe Ruth League All Stars to the New York State finals at Amsterdam were tremendous tributes to the quality of small fry baseball in the area.

The Nationals travel to Schenectady for the state Little League sectionals Friday, further spreading the gospel of Kingston baseball. The Babe Ruth trek to the state finals was marked by brilliant team playing, superb pitching and individual batting exploits worthy of major leaguers. But for a couple of bad breaks, Kingston and Johnstown might still be locked in a scoreless duel.

These teams have brought recognition and fame to the city and we join with all sports-minded folks in congratulating the players, officials, coaches and managers who pooled their efforts in these championship performances.

It wasn't a particularly good season for the American Legion Juniors, but let us not overlook their brilliant record over the years. It is within the realm of possibility that a year from now Kingston will have the American Legion, Babe Ruth and Little League champions in the state.

• Flotsam and Jetsam:

That's an old rivalry coming to a second climax Saturday night as local businessmen salute Fred Davi and his New York-New Jersey League Braves with a Community Night. Saugerties against Kingston is a rivalry as old as baseball itself in this part of the country as grandfather can tell you. . . . All the elements for a slambang ball game are there. The valiant Dutchmen are the only team in the circuit to defeat Kingston on the field. The other loss in nine games was via the forfeit route in that now historic mixup in which Kingston players went to Nyack for a contest scheduled at Congers. Although his various editions of NY-NJ representatives (Colonials, Yankees, now Braves) have had long term leases on the netherlands of the league, Davi's clubs have enjoyed uncanny success against superior Saugerties squads, having whipped them six times in eight games. And they're thirsting for revenge Saturday night. Let's all pitch in and make this a generous tribute to a fine ball club.

• A Brilliant Duel:

If you drive past the Forsyth Park tennis courts any evening around 6 o'clock, you can get a glimpse of the resurgence of interest in the sport. And the tennis devotees are still raving about the brilliant city championship finals between Marty Kaye, the champion, and Ed Mills, the sturdy challenger. George Baron, who has won a few titles himself, gave us an excellent word picture of the tremendous battle between Kaye and Mills. In setting up the dramatic third set in which Kaye rallied from a 2-5 deficit to win 8-6, Baron pointed out that Mills won the first set with comparative ease. Kaye had broken his favorite racquet during the warmup period while volleying with Mills and played with a racquet that was not to his liking. Kaye replaced his racquet and with it his style of play at the start of the second set. He began to hit with more assurance and less hesitancy, whereas Mills appeared to let down (a dangerous tendency when you are ahead). Kaye took the second set, 6-2, with almost the same ease with which Mills won the first. He was getting depth and pace on his forehand and was also coming to the net with greater frequency to cut off Mills' returns with drop shots or placements. Mills stroking suddenly turned cautious and he was not hitting away with the relaxed power he showed in the first set. The third set, well, this was truly one of the finest ever played in Kingston. For Kaye it was a brilliant victory. In defeat, Mills established himself as the Bill Tilden of the field. Whoever wins the future will have to get by him first.

12 Baseballs To Be Awarded To Small Fry

Everything will be awarded but the kitchen sink Saturday at Dietz Stadium as the City of Kingston celebrates "Baseball Night." Prizes will be awarded before and after the game and even the kids will not be forgotten. To make the evening even more attractive, the contest will be between two New York - New Jersey Baseball League rivals, the Kingston Braves and the Saugerties Dutchmen.

Boys and girls, under 15 years of age, will be admitted free, if they are accompanied by an adult. In addition, they will receive free ice cream and will have a chance to win one of twelve baseballs, autographed by the Milwaukee Braves, 1958 National League champions.

The feature of the night will be the awarding of a portable television set to the lucky adult ticket holder. The set is being donated by the Uptown Merchants Association.

The players will not be neglected either. There will be three special awards for the player hitting for the most total bases, the one who in the opinion of the committee is the Most Valuable Player during the game and one for the pitcher, if any, who hurls a shutout.

Natural Attraction

The game itself is a natural. The Dutchmen dealt a serious blow to Kingston several weeks ago with an upset victory. To add salt to the wounds, Jack Houghtaling, a Kingston resident, was the winning pitcher in relief. Since victories for the Dutchmen against the Braves are far and few between, this one made Bill Straub and company quite elated.

Bob Maines, the southpaw whiz, is expected to start Saturday's game. He has a 5-0 mark in circuit play so far this season. His last effort at Spring Valley was a sharp one. Bob didn't hurl the first affair at Saugerties. He played the outfield.

Manager Straub will probably toss John Mustion, the Syracuse University star, against the Braves. Big John has been in several low scoring games this season. He lost a 5-1 decision at Poughkeepsie recently, but was strong in the clutch. If Mustion doesn't get the nod, Glenn Santmire, who has been hampered by control trouble, may start. At any rate, the former Roosevelt star will be in the lineup. He swings a big bat.

The standings:

Poughkeepsie	7	1
Kingston	7	2
Saugerties	5	3
Jersey City	3	4
Spring Valley	4	5
Beacon	3	5

Braves Now First In National Loop As Dodgers Lose

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer

Warren Spahn has led the Milwaukee Braves back into the National League lead with a brilliant three-hitter against the San Francisco Giants Tuesday night.

The 38-year-old left-hander who has won 261 games, only five short of Eppa Rixey's all-time high for a National League southpaw, allowed only one hit in the first 7 2-3 innings. That was a single by Willie McCovey with two gone in the first. He walked Willie Mays in the fourth but not another Giant reached base until the eighth.

Jim Hegan's two-out single broke the spell and the Giants broke the shutout with two walks and Willie Kirkland's double in the last of the ninth.

The 6-1 Milwaukee victory put the Braves on top by .001 over the Giants with Los Angeles, a 4-1 loser to Cincinnati, another half game behind.

It was the first time Fred Haney's defending champions had held first place since July 8, just after the first All-Star game break and shortly before their disastrous seven-game losing slump. Except for one day, July 29, when Los Angeles edged ahead by a half game, the Giants had been on top.

Fielding Lapses

Sloppy Giant fielding helped ruin the night for the capacity crowd of 22,959 at Seals Stadium. San Francisco committed five errors, two by losing pitcher Mike McCormick.

Milwaukee, enroute to its 11th victory in its last 13 games, picked up unearned runs in the first and third and landed on McCormick for two more in the fifth. Del Crandall's 13th homer with Billy Bruton on base completed the scoring in the eighth.

While the Braves were winning the opener of this important three-game series, Los Angeles was blowing a chance to take over first place.

Vada Pinson hit a two-run homer and lefty Joe Nuxhall allowed only three hits in beating the Dodgers who led momentarily in the first inning on Wally Moon's ninth home run. Pinson connected for No. 15 over the left field screen during the three-run third. Roy McMillan walked, took third on Nuxhall's double and scored on Johnny Temple's sacrifice fly. Then came Pinson's blow that hung defeat No. 5 on Stan Williams. Jerry Lynch also homered in the eighth off Roger Craig.

Nuxhall was the first left-hander to start against the Dodgers and beat them in their Coliseum this season.

Musial Homers

Pittsburgh's Vern Law subdued St. Louis 7-3 despite home runs by Stan Musial and George Crowe. The Pirates routed loser Bob Gibson in the three-run fifth after scoring three times in the first inning. It was Law's 12th victory and Gibson's first defeat since he was brought up from the Omaha farm club.

Harry Anderson's two-run double provided Robin Roberts with enough runs for Philadelphia's 2-1 margin over Chicago in the only day game. Roberts 10th victory of the season was the 216th of his brilliant career.

Triple, Home Run Help Indians Top Washington, 8-2

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer

With Tito Francona on the warpath there is new hope in the camp of the Cleveland Indians who now trail Chicago by only two games in the American League race.

Francona leads both majors with his .416 batting average but he probably won't have enough at bats to be eligible for the league title. He needs about 255 more appearances at the plate and the Indians have only 49 games to play.

Certainly the deal that brought Francona to Cleveland from Detroit in exchange for Larry Doby last March ranks with one of the best Frank Lane ever made.

Doby finally drifted to Chicago again and was shipped down to San Diego in the Pacific Coast League just the other day.

Francona helped send poor stumbling Washington down to its 17th straight defeat Tuesday night when he drove in four runs in Cleveland's 8-2 victory. The outfielder sparked a four-run surge in the third with his two-run triple and hit his 12th homer in the seventh after Minnie Minoso walked. In the meantime, Jim Perry was throwing a six-hitter to beat Bill Fischer.

Cookie Lavagetto's Senators, who haven't won since they beat Kansas City in the first half of a July 19 doubleheader, can beat the club record for futility if they blow Wednesday's doubleheader. In fact, the American League and modern major league record is only 20, shared by three clubs, the most recent being the 1943 Philadelphia A's. A Washington club lost 18 in a row in 1948.

Turn the Tables

Baltimore gave Chicago a dose of its own one-run medicine. The Orioles came up with two unearned runs in the eighth for a 3-2 decision over the White Sox, who had won 26 of 31 previous one-run games.

Rookie Ken McBride from Indianapolis left in the eighth with the bases loaded and Chicago leading 2-1 on Johnny Romano's two-run pinch homer. Relief man Turk Lown walked in the tying run before Gerry Staley took over. The Orioles scored the clincher when Luis Aparicio couldn't get off a throw after fielding Billy Klaus' grounder. Billy Hoeft was the winner and McBride the loser.

Lary Again

Frank Lary worked his usual magic on the Yankees as Detroit made it 11 out of 15 over New York with a 4-3 decision. Lary now has won five in a row over the Yanks this year and holds a 21-5 lifetime edge. Neil Chrisley, who has only nine hits, slammed his sixth homer for the Tigers and Mickey Mantle hit No. 21 and Elston Howard No. 13 for New York.

Kansas City dropped to fourth place by splitting a twi-nighter at Boston. Pete Runnels drove in three runs in Boston's 4-1 opening victory for Tom Brewer. The A's scored six in the sixth to take the second game 8-6. Eleven men batted in the big inning that ruined Al Schroll and gave Murry Dickson his second victory.

Boy Scouts Drum Corps Heads Grande Parade at Horse Show

The bugle and drum corps of Troop 12, Boy Scouts of America will lead the Grand Parade for the fifth annual horse show sponsored by Ulster Kiwanis Club Sunday at Maple Lane Farm on Albany Avenue Extension. This is the only such group in the Boy Scout movement in the Hudson Valley.

The ring and booth are already in place for the big show which will feature 17 events, including pony, bareback, horsemanship, men's Western stock, junior musical chairs and three-gaited flat saddle. Entry fees have again been held to a minimum in order to broaden the competition.

Joseph McNierney, show superintendent, has announced that entry applications indicate a broader field of horses competing for the coveted Kiwanis trophies, as this show has become known as "the show with the usuable trophies."

The trophies, other than the cash prizes, are on display in the window of the Shanty Store at Fair and North Front Streets in Kingston. A special prize will be awarded at 3 p. m.

In the event of rain Sunday, the show will be postponed until Aug. 23 at the same location.

Monticello Track Increases Purses For Third Time

The third increase of purse values for horsemen competing at Monticello Raceway was announced today by officials at the track.

President Franklin E. Devlin and Racing Secretary James J. Dunnigan Jr. announced the rise across the board in this fashion:

Horses in Class C trots and paces will now vie for $1,100; the B category races will have purses of $1,600 and handicap A overnight events will call for $2,200 in purses.

The third increase is a result of an upward trend in wagering at the upstate New York oval, rapidly becoming one of the larger ones in the nation.

When the campaign opened Devlin pointed out that C prices were $800; B were $1,200 and A were $1,800.

"Today we are paying the highest purses in upstate New York and expect to attract a flock of new and faster horses," he stated.

Roosa, Francis Davenport, William Brissa, Jesse Roosa, Louis Larsen and Frank Collins of Stone Ridge and George H. Swart of Kingston.

Liston, Valdes To Fight Tonight

CHICAGO (AP) —Nino Valdes, the giant Cuban, will try to reenter the heavyweight picture tonight by upsetting the third ranked contender, Sonny Liston.

Liston, No. 3 by both the National Boxing Assn. and Ring magazine, is unbeaten in 17 bouts and has lost only once in 25. He is a solid favorite to dipose of the 34-year-old Valdes in the televised (ABC, 9 p.m. EST) 10 rounder in Chicago Stadium.

Valdes, once the top-rated contender, knocked out Dan Hodge in eight rounds last April but a month later lost a 10 round decision to Alonzo Johnson in Madison Square Garden. In 19 years as a pro, Valdes has won 48 of 67 bouts, 35 of them by knockouts.

Liston, 27-year-old resident of Philadelphia, may have trouble with Valdes' best weapon, a left hook to the face or body, but Sonny never has been knocked out. He thinks his right will bomb out the Cuban, who has been kayoed four times.

Canadian-American Grid Rules on Trial

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The pro football whirl, climaxed so brilliantly with Baltimore's overtime National Football League championship victory last December, gets started tonight with an offering of a different nature.

The NFL Chicago Cardinals will play the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Big Four Football Union in an exhibition game featuring the rules of both leagues.

This is not the first time NFL and Canadian teams have matched styles of play, but it will offer good comparisons for the rule makers and football style devotees.

When the Cards have the ball, each team will have 11 men on the field a la American style of play. Also the U.S. rule of unlimited interference will be in effect when either team is on the offensive.

The teams will be allowed 12 men when the Argos are on offensive. But the big excitement in Toronto is the unlimited blocking rule, directly opposed to the Canadian rule that says a ball carrier is on his own once he hits the secondary.

Card Coach Frank (Pop) Ivy, who was a successful Canadian professional coach before taking over the Cards last season, may have Tom Catlin, veteran center whom the Cards obtained Tuesday from the Cleveland Browns. They gave up a draft choice for the former Oklahoma star.

Injuries were the talk of some of the other NFL training camps. In Los Angeles' Redland, Calif., camp, halfback Jon Arnett's hand injury will keep him sidelined only two weeks, instead of six to eight as originally feared.

In the Colts camp, veteran linebacker Leo Sanford must undergo surgery for a recurring knee injury.

Halfback Gene Gedman and guard John Gordy will miss the Detroit Lions exhibition game Saturday against the Rams at Boulder, Colo. Gedman has an ailing knee, and Gordy a badly twisted ankle. End Jim Doran's bruised shoulder makes him a doubtful starter.

College Grid Stars Win Practice Tilt

By JOE MOOSHIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

RENSSELAER, Ind. (AP) —The College All-Stars passed their first test against professional competition Tuesday but Coach Otto Graham wasn't satisfied with his squad's performance.

"We still have a lot of work ahead of us," said Graham after his All-Stars had defeated the Chicago Bears 7-6 in an exhibition scrimmage at St. Joseph's College.

"This game will do us a lot of good," said Graham, "but we face a tough club in Baltimore. We were pretty sloppy out there."

The All-Stars, who meet the Baltimore Colts in Chicago's Soldier Field Aug. 14, put on a 99-yard touchdown drive in the final quarter to nip the Bears.

Lee Grosscup of Utah directed the march which ended when he flipped 33 yards to Buddy Dial of Rice for the score. Sam Williams of Michigan State converted the decisive point.

The Bears scored in the second quarter when they blocked an All-Star punt and Bill George picked up the ball and ran 24 yards for the touchdown.

ANOTHER LINE—The similarity between Joe Louis and his son, nicknamed Punchy, is seen in the caps they wear. The former heavyweight champion is beginning his boy's sports instruction at an early age—but in golf, not the boxing game.

Hogan Ready to Investigate Muddled Rosensohn Affairs

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The well-muddled aftermath of the Ingemar Johansson - Floyd Patterson heavyweight title fight was off on another tangent today with disclosure by District Attorney Frank Hogan that his racket probers have stepped into the case.

Hogan, emphasizing that the investigation has nothing to do with the result of the fight itself but of the promotional activities, said Tuesday night his office has been questioning promoter Bill Rosensohn off and on since July 23.

Hogan said they are particularly interested in "the promotional activities leading up to the fight and what may have occurred since between Rosensohn and his associates."

Rosensohn was scheduled for further questioning today. He talked with Hogan's men Tuesday but no details of the talks were disclosed.

Curiosity Stimulated

Hogan said Assistant District Attorney John Bonomi, who is conducting the questioning, obtained certain information "that stimulated our curiosity about Rosensohn's associates. I'm not suggesting to the contrary, but there may be more to it than appears in the press."

Rosensohn, who resigned as president of his own promotion company, Rosensohn Enterprises Inc., on Monday, told his version of at least part of the story in a copyrighted article appearing in Sports Illustrated today.

In it, he charged he unwillingly signed away control of his company to salvage the June 26 fight in which Johansson lifted the title in three rounds at Yankee Stadium.

Rosensohn said this consisted of turning over one-third of the stock in Rosensohn Enterprises to one Charley Black, described as a friend and associate of Cus D'Amato, and another third to Vincent Velella, an attorney and friend of Black's.

The promoter said if these terms had not been met, D'Amato—the manager of Patterson — would have called off the fight.

Last week, Velella turned up with two-thirds of the stock and, over Rosensohn's objections, seated Irving Kahn of Teleprompter, Inc., as a director of the promotion company. Three days later, Rosensohn resigned as president.

Purse Released

In another development Tuesday, federal court Judge Frederick Van Pelt Bryan ordered Johansson's purse from the first fight released from custody of the U. S. marshal's office here.

The marshal, however, said he could not release it until he learned the exact amount of the purse, an accounting of which has not been revealed — even to Johansson.

Johansson's share has been estimated at about $250,000, including gate, television, radio and film receipts. His adviser, Edwin Ahlquist, has demanded a full accounting of all figures before he will permit Johansson to talk about a rematch.

The purse was attached by a writ brought by the Chicago Stadium Corporation and heavyweight Eddie Machen, who claims he had a contract for a return bout with Johansson before the Swede met Patterson for the title.

How to Spot a Landlubber —And Keep from Being One

LANDLUBBER AT WORK?—Watch a boatman approach a dock and you can usually tell how experienced he is. A slow approach with lines ready is recommended, but watch that forward deck. May be slippery and insecure to stand on.

By WM. TAYLOR McKEOWN
Editor, Popular Boating
Distributed by NEA Service

"I've just bought my first boat," a friend told us. "I hate being spotted as a landlubbery beginner. What should I do?"

Start learning as fast as possible, we told him. Seamanship is important for safety and boating pleasure.

The beginning boatman can be recognized before he even leaves the dock. Does he pick up an ice chest and picnic-basket which could throw him off balance, and then try to step onto the side of a small boat? Falling overboard right at the start can be very embarrassing.

Note his equipment aboard. Are there life preserver jackets and cushions for each passenger and are his children already wearing theirs- Do you notice he has stowed aboard an anchor and lots of line, a bilge pump, spare paddle and probably an approved-type fire extinguisher? Is stowage kept shipshape?

Watch him leave the dock. Has he been watching other boats go in and out so that he can judge the strength of the wind and any current? Boats have no brakes and it is important to learn what speeds are necessary to keep steering control and still be able to stop in time.

How fast does he head out? He may be safely away from other boats and still throw out a bow wave than can rock and slam moored craft against the dock. Is he going out in threatening weather when more experienced boatmen and even commercial fishermen would stay at anchor?

Traffic is usually heaviest around a dock. Here is where the newcomer's knowledge of rules of the road shows up. Does he back out into the channel without giving approaching boats the right of way? When a boat comes toward him from the right, does he show he is a novice by cutting in front of the other craft or, worse still, steer a confusing course first one way and then the other while he tries to make up his mind?

Watch him offshore. Does he drive near swimmers? Speed past anchored fishing boats? Allow passengers to stand up or sit on the slippery forward deck of the small outboard?

How about his return to the dock? Here he can use an offshore wind or current as a brake, or may need to rely on his reverse gear. Does he put out fenders to cushion his bump against the dock and then make a slow approach?

"So how do I learn all these techniques?" our friend asked. Magazines, books, Power Squadron and Coast Guard Auxiliary classes and best of all questions and practice. Go offshore and try to pull up slowly to a buoy or floating piece of drift as if it were a dock. Approach from different angles to find how your boat reacts to the wind and current. Experiment at your dock when no one else is around.

Ask questions. Every boatman likes to give advice and enjoys his sport more the more he learns. Find out from experienced seamen what they advise for docking procedures, equipment, safety practices and the weather.

The sure sign of the insecure and not-too-bright beginner is that he's ashamed to ask.

No-Hitter Nice, But Spahn Will Take 261 Wins

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Warren Spahn doesn't figure he will ever pitch a no hitter, but don't fret about him. His left arm is still good enough to pitch the Milwaukee Braves into the National League lead.

"To pitch a no hitter or one-hitter, a pitcher has to be young and strong," Spahn said Tuesday night after beating San Francisco 6-1 on a three-hitter. "I'm neither."

The victory hoisted the Braves ahead of the Giants.

Spahnie is 38. His record for this season is now 15-10 and he has a total of 261 victories in a major league career dating back to 1942.

He is not thinking about the past, though. Holding court in his dressing room cubicle, Spahn told reporters: "I'll pitch 'em, you do the counting."

The victory was the 11th in the Braves last 13 games, and Spahn, ever optimistic, figures the one percentage point lead over the Giants will grow.

"I've thought all along the Braves will win the pennant," he said. "I still do."

He had plenty of help from a Giant infield that contributed five errors.

Washington and Killer Slump at Same Time

WASHINGTON (AP) — For a few giddy weeks earlier in the season the Washington Senators were eyeing a first division finish in the American League. And a stocky young slugger was being hailed as another Babe Ruth.

Now the Senators are threatening to break through the bottom of the league as they near baseball's longest losing streak. And Harmon Killebrew is waving one of the league's most ineffective bats.

The two collapses are closely tied together. When Killebrew was clouting home runs at a rate that put him ahead of Ruth's record-setting pace of 1927, the Senators were astounding their long-suffering fans by rising to the dizzy heights of fifth place, a spot they occupied as recently as two weeks ago.

Killebrew had 32 home runs then and led the league in runs batted in with 80. But since July 19 the Senators have lost 17 straight games and Killebrew has hit exactly one home run and the equivalent minimum in runs batted in—one.

His 33 homers and 81 RBI are still tops for the league, but it's safe to say they won't be long, at his present rate of production.

It is axiomatic that nobody looks good on a club that has lost 17 straight games. Except for Jim Lemon, nobody is hitting. The pitching has been inadequate and the fielding atrocious.

But the present performance of the club is not unprecedented. The 1948 Senators lost 18 in a row, and the club hasn't finished higher than seventh since 1954, when it soared to sixth.

Jensen Not Sure About Quitting

BOSTON (AP) —Jackie Jensen, the American League's Most Valuable Player in 1958, will decide about his baseball future after the current season.

Jensen, 32, told Boston Red Sox General Manager Bucky Harris just that late Tuesday in a conference. Harris had called it to find out whether published reports about Jensen's quitting were true.

"I can't tell anybody right now because I don't know myself," Jensen told The Associated Press.

Shokan Day Camp

The YMCA Day Camp at Shokan started its sixth week with another enrollment of close to 100 boys and girls according to assistant director Richard W. Case.

The second olympic athletic championships will be started this week finishing up with an all final Wednesday and Thursday of the final week of the 1959 season, which starts Monday, Aug. 10. All events will be promoted in junior camp age groupings of 5 to 9 years. The senior camp age group will be from 9 to 13 inclusive. All boys and girls events are separate.

The events set up in elimination form are badminton, archery, shuffleboard, checkers, horses, darts, dominoes and ping pong.

The competitive events the swimming, running and field events will take place Tuesday and Wednesday of the seventh week. Many boys and girls who have been to camp during the early season are expected to return for the championships. All campers have an opportunity to win their coveted award of blue, red and white ribbons with the new day camp insignia.

Camp counsellors, along with Director Case have many names on the list to receive diplomas on the final day of camp. The diplomas are earned for camp achievements such as sportsmanship and character, swimming, general camp advancement and leadership adaptation. The certificates of the new Day Camp are of the latest design and have more significance because of the first year at the new camp site in Shokan.

Swimming is stressed for new campers. The pollywag group has now advanced to the minnow group and many should pass their required 75 foot test this week. Many boys and girls have advanced in the art of swimming and have earned their badge in the fish test by swimming 100 yards, the flying fish test of swimming 220 yards and the shark test of swimming 440 yards. Each of the three tests also have eight other skills besides diving.

Boys and girls desiring to make application for the final week of camp may get information at the YMCA, 507 Broadway, corner Pine Grove Avenue.

Tregoff Hearing Is Postponed for Week

WEST COVINA, Calif. (AP)—The preliminary hearing for Carole Tregoff on a charge she helped her physician - boyfield murder his wife has been put off a week.

The hearing was reset for Aug. 11 Tuesday so Miss Tregoff's recently hired attorney could familiarize himself with the case.

The 22-year-old divorcee wept as she appeared in court for the resetting. She is alleged to have joined wealthy Dr. Bernard Finch, 41, in killing Mrs. Barbara Finch, 33, the night of July 18.

At Dr. Finch's preliminary hearing, Miss Tregoff testified she loved him and had been intimate with him. Dr. Finch is scheduled to enter a plea on the murder charge Aug. 17.

Rocky Appoints 129 Members to State Committee

Governor Rockefeller has appointed 127 men and women experienced in education, youth work and civic and community activities to serve as members of the New York State committee on the 1960 White House Conference for Children and Youth.

A. Van W. Hancock of Syracuse is chairman of the committee. Mrs. David M. Levy of New York City and the Rt. Rev. Msgr. William L. Wozniak of Buffalo are vice-chairmen.

In preparation for the national conference, the committee has sponsored a series of nine regional conferences and citizens meetings at which there has been discussion on such subjects as physical and mental health, education, correction, child welfare, youth and opportunities to work, and recreation.

Similar committees have been established in other states.

The committee will meet in the fall at a date and place to be announced later to consider recommendations being drafted as a result of the discussions at the regional conferences. At that time, a final state report will be published by the committee, summarizing the discussions at the regional conferences and making recommendations for action.

Declares Vincent Knew What He Was Doing

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y. (AP) —Vincent Astor's widow says her husband knew exactly what he was doing when he left his half brother, John Jacob III, out of his will.

Vincent left his brother out of the will because he considered John Jacob "notorious as an indolent playboy whose escapades were disgusting," the widow asserted in a memorandum filed with the Dutchess County Surrogate's Court Tuesday.

She added that her husband was determined against "diverting his wealth from worthy purposes to replenishing the fortune of one whose conduct was offensive to his personal and family ideals."

John Jacob contested the will partly on the claim that Vincent, who died in New York City Feb. 3 at 67, was senile at the time the will was drawn.

The will left an estate estimated between 100 and 200 million dollars to the widow and charity.

Both half-brothers are reported to have been left 70 million dollars in the estate of Col. Jacob Astor who went down with the Titanic in 1912. John Jacob announced recently he now has only about five million dollars left.

Official Notice Of Police Tests Are Mailed Today

Two civil service eligibility lists resulting of promotional examinations were in the mail for official notice to candidates, it was learned today.

They were mailed as the result of decisions by the Municipal Civil Service Commission at its meeting last night in the municipal building, East O'Reilly Street, and one, it is expected, will contain the name of Acting Police Chief Robert F. Murphy, who was the only local police official permitted to take the test for permanent appointment as police chief.

The other list will be for appointment of a deputy police chief. That test was taken by Lt. Grover S. Hoffay and Lt. Charles Hoehing.

No conclusive action was taken toward compiling an eligibility list for the position of fire department lieutenant because of the need for further verification of veterans' credits.

Philip F. McDonald, the commission's president, said all candidates on lists must be officially notified before publication is permitted. The fire department list is expected to contain some 15 or 16 names.

Ask Traffic . . .

ment pays 90 per cent of the cost.

Traffic up Broadway, as mapped in the original interchange plan, will swing away from the present intersection of Broadway and St. James Street, and in order to get there would have to continue through a section of the traffic triangle and turn from Albany Avenue back into Broadway.

Eastbound traffic on Broadway will continue down that street as formerly as will that coming off the arterial route spur.

John Arborio, Inc., of Poughkeepsie, contractor, it was recently noted, plans to pour pavement in the triangular area before cold weather so that streets in the traffic pattern may be used during the winter. Pouring west of the city will depend on completion of several bridges between the city and the Route 28-Thruway interchange.

Failure Is . . .

the Soviet and American leaders lessened for the time being the Soviet menace to West Berlin. Were it not for this prospective exchange, the failure of the foreign ministers to reach any accord on Berlin might have created an extremely hazardous situation.

The Eisenhower - Khrushchev agreement to exchange visits brought no softening of Soviet tactics in the closing hours at Geneva. Gromyko reportedly made a final effort to word the communique so as to recognize Communist East Germany as a virtual participant in the conference. The West adamantly rebuffed him.

In its final form Tuesday night, the communique said that, despite frank and comprehensive discussion, the ministers had not found it possible to reach agreement on Berlin. But they said they consider the talks useful.

Lions See Movie On Post Office

The guest speaker at Tuesday's luncheon meeting of the Kingston Lions Club was Oscar V. Newkirk, postmaster of the local post office and former mayor of the city of Kingston. He was introduced by Harold O'Connor, program chairman for the day.

Newkirk presented a film entitled, "The Most Mechanized Post Office in the World." This film brings the viewer on a tour of the new Washington, D. C., Post Office wherein all types of new machinery have been installed to sort, face and cancel mail and perform many other jobs which require long tedious hours by large staffs of employes.

In addition to the many new pieces of machinery now in use at this modernized post office, the film depicted other working models of machines now in the testing stage which will take over even more complicated sorting jobs. A machine was shown which will actually read typewritten or printed addresses.

These modern installations will enable our government to handle the ever-increasing volume of mail which, according to Newkirk, is now 62 billion pieces per year.

Pearl Returns

NEW YORK (AP) — Jack Pearl, the comic Baron Munchausen of radio's heyday, is to tackle an important dramatic part in Paddy Chayefsky's "The Tenth Man," an autumn item for Broadway. Pearl has been absent from Broadway since 1943 appearance in "All for All."
